Evanti, McFerrin, Salem Choir, Jazz Concert Feature Month-Long "Festival of Living" Cultural Series at A

GREENSBORO—The month-long Festival of Living Series, a concentrated cultural program now underway at A&T College, is being conducted this year along the theme, "North Carolina—The Tar Heel State."

The program which opened last Thursday, April 9, with a panel discussion on the theme of the observance has featured the annual Rededication Service, a religious program and the annual spring concert by the A&T College Male Chorus both on last Sunday and on Monday, the A&T College debate team met Duke University of Durham.

Other features scheduled for the observance include: a Faculty Arts Concert at 10:00 a.m., and a Moravian Culture Program, featuring the Salem College Choir at 8:00 p.m., both on Tuesday, April 21.

Robert McFerrin, noted baritone, will appear in concert on Wednesday evening, April 22.

A Charm Clinic will be conducted for three days, Thursday, April 23, through Saturday, April 25. Madame Lillian Evanti, prominent concert singer and native North Carolinian, is guest clinician.

Other features for that weekend include: a formal dinner for women students at 6:00 p.m., and a jazz concert and dance by Lou Donaldson, a 1948 graduate of the college, and His All Stars at 8:00 p.m., both Saturday.

Dr. Flemmie Kittrell, chairman, Department of Home Economics, Washington, D. C., will deliver the main address at the annual observance of Women's Day on Sunday, April 26. She will speak in the Harrison Auditorium beginning at 11:00 a.m.

CITED FOR HEROISM—Jack Baird, famous dog writer, at right, presents first joint Friskies Fidelity Award to Pee Prettyman, center, and Ralph Mercier at Hartford, Connecticut. The two men were honored for their courageous act of heroism in rescuing Chubby, a part collie, part shepherd dog who had wandered out on the ice in the Connecticut River on one of the coldest days of the year. When told the dog was in danger, the two men donned their skin-diving suits, dove into the icy waters and brought the dog to safety. The dog is owned by a complete stranger, Mrs. Joseph Mazzeo, of East Hartford.

The Friskies Fidelity Award is presented by the Friskies Dog Food Division of Carnation Co. in recognition of human acts of bravery in behalf of man's best friend.

Fund Drive For Morris

SUMTER, S.C.—Morris College seeks to finish its $15,000 drive for the Council for the Advancement of Small Colleges.

The College has already raised $7,000, the other $8,000 must be raised by the end of May.

Wednesday night, May 15, is Morris College Night at the Baptist State Convention. One hundred ministers and churches have been asked to contribute $100 each toward the completion of this drive.

There were just as many careless drivers 40 years ago, but then the horse had more sense.
