Edmonds Addresses Closing Session Of Links; Group Elects New Officers

CHICAGO, Ill. — With the admittance of five new chapters, the election of one new officer and the reelection of Mrs. Pauline Weeden of Lynchburg, Va. as National President, and Mrs. Anna Julian of Oak Park, Ill. as National Treasurer, the National Assembly of Links, Inc. closed one of the most colorful meetings of its time, to meet in 1960 in Los Angeles, Cal.

With the Chicago Chapter of Links acting as hostesses to this Eleventh National Assembly, all meetings and social affairs were held at the famed Palmer House in Chicago.

The new officer elected was Mrs. Nannie Inborden of Raleigh, N. C. as corresponding secretary to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Georgia Schanck of Orlando, Fla.

Re-elected to serve another year on the Finance Committee were Mrs. Cora Malony of Buffalo, N.Y. and Mrs. Lugusta Colston of Miami, Fla. The third member elected was Mrs. Grace Walker of Youngstown, Ohio.

With a full agenda of business and social sessions crowded into a span of four days, June 25th to the 28th, the Assembly opened with registration and committee meetings on Thursday, June 25th with an official registration of delegates from 75 of the 83 Link Chapters.

The climax of the four-day meeting was the annual banquet on Saturday evening when Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, a member of the Durham, N. C. chapter, spoke on the "American Woman's Challenge."

Cool Tips for Hot Sports

The 19th hole is always pleasant to anticipate. After a hot day on the course, a cool shower, alcohol rub down and fresh clothes make even an over-par score easier to take. But, since perspiration will begin to accumulate again the minute you step out of the shower, don't forget that very important locker room routine—the use of a good deodorant. For a par score on the good grooming course choose one like Mum which protects against perspiration odor without interfering with the normal functioning of the perspiration glands.

Knuckles Gets Doctor's Degree In Biology

FAYETTEVILLE — Joseph L. Knuckles, for the past three years an instructor in Biology at the Fayetteville State Teachers College, became Dr. Knuckles when on June 14 the University of Connecticut formally conferred upon him the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Parasitology. His minor areas were Bacteriology and Bio-Chemistry.

Dr. Knuckles' dissertation, "Studies on the Role of Phormia regina (Meigen) As a Vector of Certain Enteric Bacteria," was completed under the direction of his advisor, Dr. Lawrence H. Penner.

Because of the excellence of his work, he was elected to membership in Beta Kappa Chi Honor Scientific Society and in the National Research Society of the Sigma Xi.

A North Carolinian by birth, Dr. Knuckles was born at Lumberton. There he attended the Thompson Institute Elementary School and the Redstone Academy. He proceeded to North Carolina at Durham where he took the B. S. Degree in Biology in 1948.

Nurse Jones, on her way home, stops to admire her youngest neighbor. "He's thriving on his Carnation formula," Mrs. Jones says. 8 out of 10 mothers who feed their babies a Carnation formula say, "My doctor recommended it."

Registered nurse tells why Carnation is used in more hospital formula rooms throughout the world than any other brand

Altha Jones, registered nurse, supervises the nursery and formula room at a leading Chicago hospital. She and her husband Jesse Jones are active church and club members. At the hospital, Mrs. Jones helps train student nurses in the proper feeding of infants. "When you've seen as many healthy babies thriving on Carnation formulas as I have," Mrs. Jones points out, "it is easy to see why this brand of evaporated milk is the world's leader for infant feeding." No other form of milk is so safe, nourishing and digestible for baby's bottle as Carnation in the red and white can. It's the milk every doctor knows.

"Only Carnation can make a cream sauce smooth enough for my creamed chipped beef," Mrs. Jones declares. She and millions of others have made Carnation the world's leading brand of evaporated milk.

Carnation creamed chipped beef

(Makes 4 servings)

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 1/2 cups (large can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
- 1 1/2 cups (4 oz.) cut dried beef
- 1/2 cup diced celery
- 1/4 cup diced green pepper
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
- 2 chopped hard-cooked eggs

Blend butter, flour, salt and pepper together in saucepan over low heat till smooth. Gradually add undiluted Carnation. Continue stirring until thickened and smooth.

Brown rinsed and well-drained dried beef in iron skillet. Add celery, green pepper, pimiento, eggs and Carnation cream sauce. Serve over toast or well-drained cooked rice.
