The Mayor's Committee on Human Relations, alerted people in the Durham area.

"One of the things that makes our interviewing easy is that we assure employers we'll not use names. When our findings are published. The employers will be listed under code classifications only," one panel member said.

The young people from Washington and California are not Negroes, but they have been living and working with Negro team members in the heart of the College Heights section.

Dr. Lee said to a reporter during the week that although some elements of the Southern white church had done much less than what might be expected in the area of "social justice" that there was another side of the Southern picture, too.

ment, protesting legislation aimed at limiting the authority of the Supreme Court and revising state sedition laws.

In his letter to the Senators, Bishop Love wrote: "We consider these bills a threat to the integration movement, and we urge you to vote and work against this legislation."

"We are especially disturbed by section two of S. 3, introduced as a separate bill, S. 294, giving state sedition laws concurrent enforceability with federal laws."

Clyde McPhatter in Durham Sat.

Five of the hottest record attractions of today will invade Durham on this coming Saturday night July, 18th when the "Hot Five" show will hold forth at the Durham Armory. Heading the array of talent will be Clyde McPhatter whose hit recordings of "Since You've Been Gone," "A Lovers Question" and "Where Did I Make My Mistake" are topping record polls everywhere.

Sharing the spotlight with Clyde is rhythm-guitar king, Bo Diddley, who will rock the joint with his current best-seller, "Crackin' Up." Bo will also sing several other numbers which have made him a favorite from coast to coast.

The Crests, singing their "big ones," namely "Flower Of Love" and "16 Candles" and Chubby Checker giving forth with his smasher, "The Class" will also be heard.

Music will be by the great Paul Williams, originator of the famous "Hucklebuck" dance craze.

The promoters have arranged to hold the dance on the spacious outdoor patio at the Armory so that you can dance to your hearts content in the cool evening breezes.

Advance tickets are on sale for $2.00 at the usual places. It'll cost you $2.50 at the door so its wise to pick'em up in advance.

services were inaugurated, among which are Homecoming, Mother-Daughter and Father-Son banquets, training institute and a senior appreciation service.

Since assuming the pastorate at First Calvary, Rev. Thompson has maintained an active interest in community affairs. He is a member of the Interdenominational and Interracial Ministerial Alliances, the H. H. Hart Shaw University Alumni club, the East Cedar Grove Baptist Association, Lyon Park Community Club, Education Committee of the NAACP, and the Durham Committee on Negro Affairs.

Each of the special programs in the anniversary series will be sponsored by groups of auxiliaries of the church. The Thursday night program is under the auspices of the Missionary Society, the Church School, the Baptist Training Union, the Boy Scouts and the Flower Committee.
