Ike Thanks UGA For Honors; Plans for 33rd Tourney Set

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Eisenhower has sent messages of thanks to members of a United Golfers Association delegation which recently delivered to the White House a UGA honorary membership plaque and other citations noting the first citizen's interest in golf.

Stating that he was "truly grateful," Mr. Eisenhower, in a letter to UGA president Franklin T. Lett, Detroit, wished for the members of UGA "many hours of sport that we love so much." The enjoyment and relaxation in the President also sent letters to youth golfers Francis Barrett, Jr., Pittsburgh, and Alan Kendrick, Washington, D. C., who accompanied Mr. Lett, Mrs. Paris B. Brown and Dr. George W. Adams, Washington, D. C., to the White House.

Final plans were being made this week for the 33rd annual UGA tournament which will be played over the New Langston Golf Course and a second Leoffler operated course in Washington. It is expected that the 1959 UGA tournament will carry the largest field in the history of the event. The tournament is played in nine divisions—pros, men and women's amateur, senior men and women, and four sections of juniors.

Three Washington area golf clubs are cooperating in the tournament—Arlington Divots, Royals and Wake Robins, which for the first time is being sponsored by UGA. The Roosevelt Hotel, upper 18th Street, NW, is the headquarters facility for the tournament, while the New Dunbar Hotel, 15th and U Streets, NW, is listed as an alternative housing location. Several social affairs, including a Tee-Off Party, 19th Hole Social and a Lou Borders Fashion Show, are scheduled during the week.
