Early October Wedding of Miss Jenkins to McAllister is Revealed

In White Rock Baptist Church Saturday afternoon October 3, Miss Pearl Hope Jenkins and Raymond McAllister, both of Durham, pledged nuptial vows before the Rev. Miles Mark Fisher in a double ring ritual.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Haywood Jenkins and Mr. McAllister is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. McAllister, all of Durham.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Margaret Goodwin, soloist, and Mr. John H. Gattis, organist.

The altar was beautifully decorated with a background of palms and ferns, and vases of white pompons, gladioli and chrysanthemums with candelabra holding lighted white tapers. A satin covered prayer bench completed the setting.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white silk organza and Chantilly lace with a circular neckline. Her circular veil was attached to a white headpiece of feathers and pearls, and she carried a bridal bouquet of sweetheart roses centered with a purple orchid.

Mrs. Alice J. Green, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and brides maid were Mrs. Delays Bolden, and Mrs. Dorothy M. Mewborn, sister of the groom, all of Durham. The matron of honor wore a blue ballerina length dress of silk organza and matching headpiece and shoes. She carried a bouquet of pink "mums" with pink streamers. The bridesmaids wore coral dresses of velvet with matching shoes and headpieces. They carried bouquets of pink "mums" with streamers.

Howard C. McAllister (cousin of the groom) served as best man, and ushers were James G. Thompson, Joseph S. Parker, Julius Davers, Jr., and Nathan White all of Durham.

The mother of the bride wore a street length blue lace dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige brocade street length dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.
