blue chemise; and Mrs. Telli Diallo, wife of the Guinean Ambassador to the United States, pictured in a bare shoulder, floor length black and gold native costume.

Bible, Missions Theme of Shaw Talks This Week

RALEIGH — The Annual Baptist Series at Shaw University will be held on Thursday and Friday, November 5 and 6, in the University Church. The general theme for the occasion is "The Biblical and Theological Basis of Missions." The guest speaker will be Dr. John E. Skoglund, the Cornelius Woelfkin professor of preaching at Colgate Rochester Divinity School.

A native of California, Dr. Skoglund received the A. B. degree at the University of California and the M. A. and B. A. degrees at the Berkeley Divinity School. He earned the Ph.D. degree at Yale University.

Well-Known Baltimore Attorney To Address Methodist Banquet

A well-known Maryland attorney will address the Welcome Banquet of the Western North Carolina Conference of the A. M. E. Church at Hillside high school on Wednesday, Nov. 18, it was announced this week. St. Joseph's will be host to the conference.

Josiah Henry, successful lawyer and a Magistrate at the Traffic Court in Baltimore, Maryland is known as the Lawyer with the "Personal Touch" because of his keen interest in the welfare of his fellowman. "Everybody knows Josiah Henry," a saying around Baltimore, is only a mild indication of the friendly character that Judge Henry exhibits. He very readily states that the secret of his success lies within the fact that he likes people and is genuinely interested in them.

Despite the hectic daily routine that Judge Henry follows, he finds time to visit the sick and bring a word of cheer or stop on the street and chat with people who just want to say hello to Judge Henry.

The name Josiah Henry is also well known among the Civic and Fraternal organizations of Baltimore. When questioned about the number of organizations he holds membership in he answers "I'm a member, I can't even count the number of groups in which I hold membership cards." Among the many organizations he holds membership in are: The Prince Hall Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Shriners and Kappa Alpha Phi.
