HILLSBORO HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Novella Latta was funeralized from Mount Zion A. M. E. Church on Sunday, June 5th, at 2:30 P. M. with Rev. Chaylous in charge of services, assisted by Rev. A. J. Holman. Mrs. Latta is survived by her husband, Richard Latta, four daughters, one son, a number of grandchildren and many other relatives.

Pastoral Anniversary was held at Orange Cross Road Baptist Church on Sunday, June 5th in honor of Rev. Linwood Daye on his first anniversary. The first part of this program was held at 3 P. M. with Rev. G. H. Brooks, Pastor of Lipscomb Grove Baptist Church as guest speaker along with his choir and other groups. Another service was held at 7:30 P. M. with Mrs. Corrine T. Holt as Mistress of Ceremony. Papers from different auxiliaries were held in honor of Rev. Daye by Mesdames Holt, Annie Nichols and Addie Latta. Several groups sang. The Choir of Flat Rock A. M. E. Church and Rev. J. E. Greene, Pastor were guest at this hour.

One of the nation's most prominent clergymen, The Rev. Dr. C. W. Anderson, pastor of the United Institutional Baptist Church of Greensboro, North Carolina, will deliver the annual Men's Day Sermon at Mount Bright Baptist Church on Sunday, June 10, at 11 o'clock.

Nationally known for his dynamic preaching, Dr. Anderson's coming to this area is regarded as a signal honor to Mount Bright Baptist Church and to Hillsboro.

He is a graduate of Benedict College. In 1953 the Doctor of Divinity Degree was conferred upon him by Shaw University because of his outstanding work as an administrator and evangelist. He is currently president of the Territorial Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Greensboro.

At the 7:30 evening service the program will be conducted by all of the men's organizations in the community. The Men's Day Rally will be brought to a close and the Church's Man of the Year will be announced. Edmond Baine is program committee chairman.

GATTIS

Melvin Gattis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Gattis of Hillsboro, preached his trial sermon at Mt. Bright Baptist Church on Sunday, May 15, at 8 P. M. His text was "I Heard A Voice". Gattis preached a most inspiring sermon. He graduated from Hillsboro High School in 1950 and attended North Carolina College in Durham. He is married to the former Miss Ruby Nichols. They have one child, Vanessa.

Seventh Institute On Issues Facing Rural Ministers Opens On July 14

GREENSBORO — The seventh annual Rural Life Institute for Ministers will be conducted here at A and T College for four days, June 14-17. Nearly 150 ministers, representing town and county churches from throughout the State, are expected to participate in the event.

The project started by the college in 1954 aims at presenting to rural churchmen latest information on the problems of rural people and communities and means of solving them, to stimulate improved working relations between the churches and all agencies dedicated to improving rural life and to focus the attention of church leaders upon some of the social problems which have grown out of recent cultural developments.

Conducted on the theme, "The Challenge of Change", the four day meet will have as principal consultants: Rev. K. O. P. Goodwin, pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist Church, Winston-Salem; Dr. Frank A. Toliver, supervisor of Negro high schools, Raleigh; Dr. C. E. Bishop, chairman, Department of Agricultural Economics, State College, Raleigh and McNeill Smith, Greens attorney.

The visiting ministers will attend several joint sessions of the State Conference of Negro Farmers and Homemakers, meeting concurrently at the college.

The project is sponsored by A and T College in cooperation with the State Extension Service. Rev. Cleo M. McCoy, director of Religious activities at the college, is in charge of local arrangements.

Summer Institute

PETERSBURG, Va. — Nearly 3,000 persons will attend summer institutes, conferences, and workshops beginning on June 13 at Virginia State College. It was announced recently by Dr. Robert P. Daniel, President of the College.

These special institutes, conferences, and workshops will be in addition to the regular course offerings in the intercession which begins June 13, and the regular six weeks session which begins on July 5.

Casual Dress Service Begins

Beginning on Sunday, June 13, Emmanuel A. M. E. Church, 710 East Street, will initiate special summer services when worshipers may come in casual, comfortable clothes.

Men can leave off their coats and ties and ladies can wear house dresses. Families planning trips for later in the day on Sundays are urged to come and worship at this services.

The early morning worship service will last one hour from seven until eight o'clock.

CARRINGTON

The Deacon Board and the Rowley District of the White Rock Baptist Church are presenting J. W. Carrington in a recital of poems on June 26 at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Carrington wrote a book of poems while serving in the Armed Forces overseas during World War II, from actual experiences.

Carrington is a Boy Scout leader, Sunday School teacher, assistant Superintendent of the Sunday School and a member of the Deacon Board at White Rock.

Featured on the program will be Mrs. Mary Borland, Norfolk, Whitted and the Red Mountain Baptist Church Male Chorus under the direction of McCoy Butler.

Vacation Bible School Pupils to Parade Friday

The twenty-eighth Vacation Bible School of the White Rock Baptist Church continues for two weeks at the local church, June 6-10, under the direction of Mrs. E. B. Pratt.

She will be assisted by experienced teachers with adult workers—Hattie Boykins, Rose Fortune, Lou Suitt Barnes, Nora Leathers, and teenagers.

Mrs. Minnie T. Davis, one of the teachers, has prepared for this school at Winston-Salem Teachers College since May 28 as guest of Northgate Presbyterian Church.

Walter Jackson of the Community Center will supervise those boys.

White Rock's Vacation Bible School is probably the largest such school in North Carolina. As many as 400 pupils between the ages of 4-14 were enrolled. The school is noted for its Bible study, calisthenics, movies, handicraft, habit talks, music, story hours, work, food, and play.

The annual parade will be next Friday morning at 10:00 a.m. under police escort and led by Troop No. 55, cub and boy scouts.

White Rock's Vacation Bible School is preliminary to the Improvement Program beginning by Dr. Minnie Forte at the church on June 20 and lasting until July 20, 1960, from 9:00 a.m. until noon. Pupils in the first four grades in elementary school can attend this refresher program with profit. Each child is expected to pay $2 each for 6 weeks training.
