Words Fitly Spoken;
White Rock Honors
Mr. J. M. Schooler

Last Sunday evening, the White Rock Baptist Church honored its beloved Mr. J. M. Schooler, principal of Whitted Jr. High School.

One can not think of one deserving of all the good things said about him than Mr. Schooler.

Val Jean paid a beautiful tribute to Mr. Schooler as principal. W. J. Kennedy, Jr., paid tribute to Mr. Schooler as a Churchman; Dr. J. M. Hubbard praised him as a Sunday School Superintendent. Mr. Frank Burnett gave the main address.

A group from Fayetteville gave vocal selections.

Mr. Burnett was introduced by Mrs. Olivia Cole.

Mrs. Felder Hostess to Daughters of Dorcas

Mrs. Sarah Felder was hostess to the Daughters of Dorcas at the Algonquin Club. The House was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The St. Patrick's Day motif (green and white) was carried out in the decorations.

Members were seated in groups of four at tables covered with lovely modera cloths.

Although Mrs. Felder was confined to Lincoln Hospital at the time, the meeting was so well planned and organized by her that Mrs. Mary Ray, acting hostess, assisted by Mesdames Anne Webb, Eugenia Simmons and Miss Mary Lipscomb, were able to carry everything out to Mrs. Felder's liking to the last detail.

Mrs. Felder had invited as guest speaker Dr. E. B. Sundoran, a native of New Delhi, India, who is doing research at Duke University in Botany.

Mrs. Felder has a keen interest in New Delhi because of her son,
