

BEST DRESSED CO-ED AT NCC
Matching brains with taste, Betty Battle, an honor senior at North Carolina College from Nashville, models three typical outfits which recently earned her the title of "Best Dressed NCC Co-ed."

Campus wear includes a red and white striped cotton blouse with bright red cotton skirt, and dark gray flat suede shoes; Street clothes, fashioned and made by the co-ed herself, are a Kelly green suit of French design with a six inch matching

Kelly green hat, black leather shoes, bag and gloves; her evening dress is black silk, full skirt, and a lace top, black satin shoes of French design, and white accessories, including white pearl earrings and short white Baby-doll gloves.

Mutual "Exec" Honored By S. C. District

CHARLESTON, S. C. — W. A. Clement, CLU, Agency Director of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, was recently honored with a salute by the company's Charleston (S. C.) District—where he was first employed and later served as Assistant Manager.

During the course of events, Combination Agent L. A. Dunmore presented the honoree with a "Special Effort Scroll" representing an exceptional sales record for the week by the Charleston District agency.

The affair marked the beginning of a series of official visits to all of the company's district offices. Clement was introduced by Mgr. F. D. Bailey after which he delivered the main address and later installed an additional staff manager on the Charleston District, F. C. Smith, Jr. of Richmond, Va.

During the afternoon program, luncheon guests were greeted on behalf of the Charleston community by Winsel Jacques, Manager of the Pilgrim Health and Life Insurance Company.

Also present was Mrs. Josephine Dobbs Clement, wife of the honoree; Dr. A. T. Cornwell, to whom Clement made his first insurance sale, and his wife Mrs. Ruby Cornwell, English teacher at Avery Institute; Rev. J. R. Pearson, Mrs. A. J. Murray, retired school teacher; and Miss Laura McFall, District Cashier.

Miss Le Vonne Baird Makes Recent Tour

ROXBORO — Le Vonne Baird, Junior at Person County High School, Roxboro, was member of an inter-racial group of students who toured Washington, D. C. and New York recently. The tour is sponsored annually by the American Freedom Association, Inc.

The students along with their sponsors lived at Hotel Piccadilly on Times Square while in New York. Places of interest which they visited were: The United Nations Headquarters, The International House, Rockefeller Center, Chinatown, the Statue of Liberty and other places of interest.

In Washington the group visited many places among which were: the Supreme Court Building, and the Pentagon. They dined in the Senate dining hall while in the Capitol City.

Le Vonne won this trip by virtue of having won first place in the local World Peace Speaking Contest. The trip was financed by the Peoples Band in this city.

Hampton Gets $13,800 Grant From NSF

HAMPTON, Va.—Hampton Institute is the recipient of a $13,800 grant from the National Science Foundation for the purpose of conducting an In-Service Institute for secondary school teachers during the academic year 1961-62, it was announced today by Dr. Wm. H. Martin, dean of faculty.

Foundation grants to colleges and universities totalling $2.7 million will support the 236 In-Service Institutes during the 1961-62 school year in 46 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. Approximately 11,000 secondary school teachers of science and mathematics, grades 7 through 12, will be able to obtain supplemental training during out of school hours under this National Science Foundation program.

Directed by Dr. Victor H. Fields, professor of chemistry, the Hampton In-Service Institute will be held each Saturday morning from October 7, 1961 to June 2, 1962. Four semester hours of graduate credit will be allowed to students who successfully complete the work outlined. This credit may be applied toward the Master of Arts degree in education at Hampton.

The 60 participants will be selected from among teachers who are employed within a radius of
