"... Will Never Be the Same"

This was the comment of one local resident following a dramatic weekend which saw young Negroes challenge segregation on two fronts in the small, coastal community.

Parrish granted his request Monday night by G. E. Tillett, defense attorney.

The five are Golden Frinks, youth leader for the Chowan County NAACP; Ernestine Williams, 18; William Kelly Jordan, 18; and Calvin Leon Webster, 16, all of the Edenton area; and John W. Edwards, youth field secretary for the NAACP, of Durham. All are free on bond.

Frinks' bond of $250 was continued. The Edenton youths were continued on $50 bond each, and Edwards, bond was raised to $100.

Frinks was arrested Saturday, Feb. 3 while he and a group of youths were picketing the Taylor theater during a "Twist Party" matching whites against Negroes. He was charged with resisting arrest, assault on an officer and illegal picketing.
