same the standard states

Medic Rips Son Of Patient With Hunting Knife

THE SAME SHE AND SHE

GASTONIA — A 44-year-old white Gastonia doctor, who is pledged to save lives, has been accused of taking a life here last Saturday.

Friday night at the home of Patton's mother. According to Gaston County home, and that he told the man that he was busy but that he would see Patton's mother later in the evening. About 40 minutes later, Riddle told police, Patton called again and used abusive language be-cause the doctor had not arrived.

Dr. Harry Riddle, prominent physician, was held without bond Saturday after, police said he stabbed a 27-year-old Negro The noted jurist, who is Judge of the County Court of Phila-delphia, is shown above with NCC Dean of Women, Miss to death with a 10 inch hunting Louise M. Latham. knife. Victim of the killing \ was Leonard Patton, a veterinarian's assistant. The incident occurred

Chapel Hill Movies Open to All; Durham Theatre Won't Negotiate police, the physician and Patton had exchanged words over the telephone when Patton asked

CHAPEL HILL-While mem bers of the Durham NAACP are still bickering with the management of the Carolina leater in an effort to end racial regation at that theater, the er theater in this town this eek took a' step forward and

PHILLY JUDGE AND NCC

EAN — Judge Juanita Kidd tout of Philadelphia was ut of Philadelphia was in speaker at North Caro-College Sunday in ob-rance of 'Coed Weekend.

wance

220-710114

Stanford L Warren Public Library Fayetteville St opped its racial bars. Management of the Carolina mater in Chapel Hill this week manufer in Chapter and his week mounced that they would ad-nit, all persons to the theater stardless of race. They joined a Varsity Theater here which us been open to all for several

The announcement of the in-ration thus ended several of protesting by UNC

In Checking began in 1960 id climaxed with a letter from a Committee to Open Theaters the management of the leater last month requesting The letter stated that if no infactory results were attained March 15, the group would

been changed

Four outstanding science stu-

lents from Hillside and Merrick-Moore high school will take part in the Junior Science

Sympoisum to be held at Duke

The students are Mary Mit-chell and Nathaniel White, Jr., of Hillside, and Charles Evans and David Williams of Merrick-

The symposium is made up of The symposium is made up of outstanding high school science students in this area. They are chosen for participation on the basis of their scholastic achieve-

Urban Renewal to be Aired Sunday

NEWS BRIEFS

JUNIOR SCIENCE BYMPOSIUM

arch 17.

Theater Integrated Following Stand-In Approximately 14 Negro

students slipped past Carolina Theater ushers Wednesday night and integrated the Durham movie house fer the first time. This incident came after an

This incident came after an hour long stand-in staged by mearly 1.000 Negro students at the theater outdoor how of-fice. When the box stiffice was moved inside the lobby. Negro students moved inside, and some, who had been given fickets purchased farlier by white friends, more put the

The action came following a break-down in negotistians between the Durham youth NAACP and theater management.

The letter stated that if no instancory results were attained March 15, the group would some picketing. On Friday, the management in Durham which they say there that we theater policy the heater notified the Com-the theater notified the Com-theater notified the Com-th

REV. LASSITER

MRS. MARKHAM

Two families which occ loss of blood and Dr. Riddle took him to a hospital where a neighbor. Riddle appeared for arraign See KILLS, 2-A

Rev. Lassifer, Mrs. Markham less men held up a savings and loan firm here early Thursday morning, took approximately $900 while leaving behind more took approximately

Are Mourned Durham area residents this week mourned the deaths of: The Rev. C. L. Lassister veteran Baptist minister of New Hope Baptist Church, of Chatham County, who died on Sun-day, March 11. The Rev. Lassiter was buried, Wednesday, March 14 following funeral services at the New Hope Baptist Church of Cha-tham. The Reverends A. T. Smith, L. W. Reid, J. H. Jones, T. Van Rhoe and J. A. Stewart, Rev. Stewart delivered the officated. Rev. Stewart delivered the eulogy.

The deceased was a native of Wake County. He was born in son of the late and Elyiser Lassister. Rev. Lassister was active in the work of the New Hope Bap-tist Association. He served, as moderator of the Ministers and Deacons Union for 23 years. He was also a long-time member of the Masons. Rev. Lassister is survived by See MOURNED, 2-A DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 17, 1962

Chapel Hill Theaters Say Yes; Durham Theater Says

VOLUME 38 - No. 11

3

¥

RETURN REQUESTED

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDLED"

NEGRO BBERS A. Brown Grabs Contest Lead

the doctor to come over to his home to treat his mother who was ill with the flu. Police quoted the doctor as saying Patton called him at his cause the doctor had not arrived. The physician told police he grew more and more angry after the second call and grabbed a hunting knife and went to Pst-ton's mother's home where he demanded an apology from Pat-ter.

> ROBBERY SCENE AND boro which was robbed of more that $900 last week. In-set shows Albert Webb, executive secertary of the firm who ing the hold-up. The hold-up men since have been appre-hended. Ten Edenton Youths Fined For Sit-ins; Decision Is Appealed EDENTON - A 30-day suspended term and fines of $25 each were handed ten youths who were active in integration movements here, Tuesday in Recorder's Court. Charged with trespassing while attempting a sit-in de-monstration at Mitchner's

Durg Store here, the cases were appealed to Chowan County Superior Court for a hearing scheduled April 2. Convicted were Calvin Hol-ley, Hamel Morning, Allen Long, Thomas Johnson, John Coston. Joseph Boyce, James See EDENTON, 2-A larity Contest at noon Wednes day reveals several surprises and new entries into the race which new entries into the race which is offering a free airplans round trip to the Holy Land as the first prize, a free airplane round trip to Bermuda as the second prize and a free sirplane round trip to New York as the third prize. Non-prize wheners will resolve 20 are entropy to a second the second between the second trip at a second trip to New York as the third prize.

Durg Store here, the cases

wesk's balloting was the ad-vancement made by Rev. J. A. Brown of Durham who came from fifth place, last week to nose out Rev. Johnny W. Barnes for first place. Other spectacular for first place. Other spectacular was wounded in the hand dursain was that of Rev. Edgar A. Love of Greenshero who ad-vanced from 20th place to fourth position

The balloting this week was much heavier than last week with tabulators in the Times office being forced to work over-time to prepare the standing of contestants by press time Several of the ministers have Several of the ministers have received votes from friends and supporters from far sway, as Kansas, City, Kansas. Already there are rumors of a darkhorse entering the race and becoming a sharp contend-er for one of the three prizes if not the Grand prize which is the free airplane round trip to the Holy Land. The Contest Manager wishes

The Contest Manager wishes to advise that a credit of 5,000 to advise that a creat of 5,000 points will be given for the first nomination blank for a minister's name entered into the contest. Credits of 1,000 points each after nomination will be given for each regular ballot clipped from a copy of the Carolina Times that has been filled in with the name of your favorite minister. You may vote for a minister as many times as you choose.

15,000 points will be given for each Bonus Ballot or one-year subscription, to the Caro-lina Times in behalf of a min-

Man Pumps Six Bullets Into Raleigh Bellhop

RALEIGH — A 28-year-old bellhop was shot to death in an elevator he was operating at the Carolina Hotel here early Westward PRICE: 15 Cents Wednesday.

Garfield Boyd of Raleigh died at Wake Memorial Hospital some two hours after he was shot six times while he operated the six times while he operated the elevator between fleors.

Arrested as he ran out of the hooting. Police also reported that a

Rev. Love Makes Big Jump in Race; Police also reported that a young man, who was later before and asid he wanted to take out a warrant for some belinops he said had beaten him un

Rev. Barnes 2nd Tabulation of the votes cast in this week's balloting in the Cardling Times Ministers Popu-

Israel Prepares "Red Carpet" For Winner

A red carpet welcome from the state of Israel awaits the winner of the TIMEB Min-isters' popularity contact. A lotter from the Israell con-vulate in Allantic Ga. we the the control's office is helping the winner enjoy the krip to the Hely Land. ". I thall down it a privilege to see To it that all necessary information and controstes are are extended him (the winner) while he is in inteel." said Zeev Z. Dover, Israell consul.

sul. Dover else sent along a portfolio et booklets and other literature containing informa-tion on Israel to be turned over is the winner of the trip.

YOUNG

Future of Negro

across tog spdomen. The officers said Patton fell across a bed then got up and ran through the house pursued by the doctor. Patton finally collapsed from VICTIM — The above picture shows the front view of the American Federal Savings and Loan Association in Greens-Jobless Trio Caught Hours After Hold-up

GREENSBORO - Three job

than $2,000 and were captured See HOLD-UP, 2-A students are being taken to the event by Mrs. Martha S. Do science teacher at Hillside.

RAILWAY

Hillside's and Merrick-Moore's

NCC BAND AT LAKEVIEW

SCHOOL SUNDAY The North Carolina College band will be presented in a ert at Lakeview elementary school on Sunday afternoon at five O'clock. The concert will be held in the school's cafterium

GIRL SCOUT TROOP PRE-SENTS PROGRAM COMME-MORATING SOTH ANNIVER-

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 45 presented a brief program at the Spaulding school PTA meet-ing Tuesday night in observance of the organization's 50th an-

Members from the troop sponsored by the school, conduct ed by the school, conducted de votions, sang girl scout songs and discussed the anniversary. See BRIEFS, 2-A group of High School students are among some 120 students from the Durham area to converge on New York to attend the annual convention of the Columbia Scholastic of the Columbia Scholastic Press Assn. held at Columbia University this week. Hillside High School students attend-ing include Cheryl Smith. Loretia Armstrong. Brenda Thompson. Victoria Joyner. Jane Sampson. Gayle Ray. Joanette Walker, Doris Johnston, Jewelle Merritt, Gloria OFF TO NEW YORK - This Snipes, Ina Fletcher, Charles Clinten, Johnny Holmer Clinton, Johnny Holmes. Arthur Spears and advisors Nathaniel Turner and Miss Nathaniel Turner and Miss Flora Snipes. From Whitted dr. High are Joyce Grant and Julie Redding and advisor H. H. Celeman. Attending from Merrick-Moore High are Mrs. A. B. Cobb and Mrs. H. S. Holman, advisors and Betty Regens. Sadie Allen, Ann Davis, Patricia Evans, Betty may be seen in the advertise-ment of the contest appearing in your copy of the Carolina Timess on page 4-B. The relative standing of con-testants for this week is as Greensboro Rev. C. R. White

Taylor Appeals

Notice of appeal has been en-tered in the case of Herman L. Taylor, prominent Raleigh at-torney who late last year was convicted in U. S. Middle Di-strict Court in Greenaboro of failing to file income tax returns and for reporting non taxable and for reporting non taxade income for one year. Taylor was convicted by Federal Judge Edwin M. Stanley and given a two-year supended term and ordered to pay the fine and civil tax liabilities and in-See TAYLOR, 2-A apartments in a duplex at 701 Lee St. were left homeless this week following a fire last Saturday which destroyed the frame dwelling.

Tabron, Vandora Tabron, Sara Franklin, Nora Reddish, Thomas Lipscomb, Earl Hin-ton, Charles Daye, Theodore McLaurin and Stanley Mc-Cormick. From Little River High School are Mrs. Edna Swann and Mrs. Eloise Hill-iard, advisors, and Gayle Mack, Vivian Parrish, Moselle Harris, Theims Luniford, Harel Pryor, Willie Outlaw, Franklin Riley, and Linda Bulleck. Photo by Purefoy

Durham 42 Rev. M. C. Swana Durham 41 Rev. W. R. Foushee See MINISTERS, 2-A

inter during the first period. The same number of point. Will be given for old subscriptions that are renewed during Ry LC's Your tions that are renewed during the content as for new ones. The number of points for sub-scriptions for more than one year may be seen in the advertise. When fotal radiated When fotal racial integration comes, thereby eliminating the need for Negro newspapers as we know them today, they will survive as non-racial journals Timess on page 4.5. The relative standing of con-testants for this week is as follows: Rev. J. A. Brown Durham Durham W. Young, counsel for and gen-eral manager of "The Journal and Guide" of Norfolk. Young expressed this view as a mem-ber of a panel for the obser-vance of National Negro News-paper Week at North Carolina College Monday.

428,000 The other speaker, Louis E. Austin, publisher of "The Car olina Times" of Durham told the audience that the nature of Negro newspapers and of the See FUTURE, 2-A 424,000 424,000