Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black Orders U. of Miss. To Admit Negro

WASHINGTON — Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black Monday ordered the University of Mississippi to admit James H. Meredith, 29, Negro as a student this fall.

Registration for the fall semester is Sept. 19. The term opens Sept. 21.

Meredith could not be reached for comment.

At the university Chancellor J. D. Williams declined to comment.

Black, in a two-page opinion, set aside stays issued by U. S. Circuit Court Judge Ben Cameron of Meridian, Miss.

Cameron's stays had halted orders of the U. S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals—of which Cameron is a member—calling for admission of the Negro to the white university.

After Cameron's repeated stays had blocked the federal appeals court ruling, Meredith took the case to the Supreme Court.

Black, in his written opinion, said he agreed with the Circuit Court that the stays issued by Cameron "can only work further delay and injury" to Meredith.

At the same time, he said, the immediate enrollment of Meredith "can do no appreciable harm to the university."

In addition Black took the case to the Supreme Court.

Albany Leader Blasts National Baptist President

ALBANY, Ga. — Dr. W. G. Anderson, young leader of the "Albany Movement" leveled a broadside at National Baptist Convention president, J. H. Jackson of Chicago. The latter had recently denounced Chicago area clergyman for their participation in a prayer pilgrimage to this southwest Georgia City. As a result, some 30-odd pastors and religious leaders of great Chicago were arrested and jailed. Jackson, reportedly termed the participation as "an act of hypocrisy."

In reply, Dr. Anderson declared, "He's a disgrace, not only to the Negro people, but to the human race. He's a Mississippi boy who's been away so long that he has no idea what the Negro in The Deep South is up against."

The young osteopath immediately sent a strong worded telegram to the Albany delegation attending the National Baptist Convention in Chicago. Dr. Anderson stated, "His (Jackson) philosophy of preparation not protest is not the solution to the race problem. It is to be condemned as incomplete." He further encouraged other men of the cloth in the telegram addressed to the Rev. James Grant, to abstain from activities counterposed to the Freedom struggle in the South.

Hobart Taylor, Jr. Named to Committee on Equal Employment

WASHINGTON, D. C. — President Kennedy named Hobart Taylor, Jr., Negro of Detroit, Monday to head the reorganized Presidential Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity. Taylor will have the title of operating chief.

The new head of the committee stated at a press conference here today that as executive vice chairman of the committee he expects to get results but will not undertake to solve anyone's racial or religious problems.

He also stated he intended to see that every citizen has a right to a job based on his ability, whether Catholic, Jew, Protestant, Negro, white man or woman. All of these face discrimination at times he stated further.

Taylor previously held the position of special counsel of the committee and helped draft the executive order which initiated the committee soon after Kennedy was inaugurated.

He has been executive assistant to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, the chairman since June. He will continue in that post along with his position as operating chief of the committee.

The position Taylor now holds was formerly held by Jerry Holleman who resigned several months ago when it was disclosed that he had accepted a handout of $1,000 from Billie Sol Estes.

The Personnel and Assignment Committee of the City School Board was scheduled to meet Tuesday afternoon to consider the application. The committee's decision will be in the form of a recommendation to the full school board, which has final say on assignments.

Senators Ervin And Jordan Join In Opposition

WASHINGTON — Following a year's delay, Thurgood Marshall's nomination to the 2nd U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals was confirmed Tuesday.

The final five-hour battle against confirmation fought in vain on the Senate floor was spearheaded by southern Senator Olin D. Johnston, D-S. C., James O. Eastland, D-Miss., and Strom Thurmond, D-S. C. Both North Carolina Democratic Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr. and Republican Senator Jordan joined in all Democratic opposition in voting "against" Marshall.

Northern Democrats and Republicans joined forces to back Marshall as a man eminently qualified for the job and the total vote came in 64-16 for confirmation.

The only argument the southerners could come up with was that Marshall, as former chief counsel of the NAACP, had been too much an advocate of civil rights, and lacked other types of legal experience.

Marshall has been serving on the 2nd Circuit Court, covering New York, Connecticut and Vermont, since October 23, 1961 under a recess appointment. President Kennedy first submitted Marshall's nomination September 23, 1961 and resubmitted it on January 15, 1962.

New "Daddy" Visits Charlotte Headquarters

CHARLOTTE — It was reported this week in the daily press that Bishop Walter McCullough, who succeeded the late flamboyant C. M. (Sweet Daddy) Grace as leader of the House of Prayer for All People, visited the red, white and blue Charlotte headquarters of the religious sect Sunday.

Bishop McCullough, a slender man with sideburns, glasses, and mustache, has the long fingernails, flowing hair and elaborate dress of Daddy Grace.

He also seemed to have his flock of three million Negroes well in hand, too. "He's just like Daddy Grace. Just like him in every way, he's wonderful," murmured Janie Hicks, a gray-haired member of the Grace Nurses' Corps, which cares for persons who become ill during the services.

The daylong program included a morning baptismal service, a colorful parade and services at the brightly painted House of Prayer for all People in Charlotte. A band blared throughout much of the day's activities. Sweet Daddy Grace died in early 1960. McCullough, of Washington, D. C., was chosen April 8, 1960, to succeed Grace. McCullough is a native of Great Falls, S. C.
