Two-Day Beauty Clinic to Be Held At the John Avery Boy's Club

A preview of what milady's fall and spring coiffures will look like will be given beauticians of this area at a two day beauty show and clinic to be held in Durham on Oct. 8 and 9.

The show, to be held at the John Avery Boys' Club on Branch Place and Proctor Streets, is being sponsored by Turner's Beauty and Barber Supplies firm.

It is the ninth annual show for the Durham beauty and barber supplies company.

The show will feature latest styles in designing, cutting, and coloring. Some of the east's leading hair designers will be on hand to display the latest techniques for preparing hair styles.

In addition, the newest products for hair styling and care will be on display by manufacturers. The line-up of nationally famous hair designers expected to display new techniques at the show is considerable. They include the following:

Belle Patterson, of New York, who will demonstrate with "Curl Out," Laura Hillyer, of Washington, D. C., who will work with "pastel Princess," Myrtle Smith, of New York, who will show what can be done with "Ever Perm," Bill Simmons, who will exhibit the abilities of "Perm Press," and Andre Mazerat, of New York.

E. C. Turner, director of the show, said local models will be used by the designers.

The show, which annually attracts beauticians from throughout the area, has shown to more than 7,000 beauticians in the past nine years.

Mrs. Mary Allison Hostess to Club

Mrs. Mary Allison was hostess to the West Durham Blossom Garden club at her home on Thuxton avenue on Tuesday evening, September 18.

Participating in the Garden Club's devotional program were Mrs. Mattie Plummer and Miss Mary L. Stephens, president.

A discussion on "bulb planting" was led during the business deliberations by Mrs. Georgia Taylor, and plans were made for the annual "Fall Bazaar" to be held on Oct. 13.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served the following members:

Mesdames Beulah Coley Edwards, Beatrice Spencer, Katie McDaniels, Addye Coley, Georgia Taylor, Allene Brown, Gertrude Gibson, Carrye Cole, Margaret Fuller, Anna Pearlle, Novella Crawford, Daisy Gunn, and Misses Ruth and Mary Stephens.

ELLIS D. JONES

ATTENDS MEET AT SENATE HALL

Ellis D. Jones of Durham, a member of the North Carolina Citizens Committee for Improved Courts, attended the meeting of this group on Thursday in the Senate Hall in Raleigh.

Former State Sen. Cullar Moore of Lumberton, chairman of the citizens committee presided.

Mr. Jones, along with some 50 committee members, participated in plans to begin campaign for approval of a judicial amendment to the State Constitution.

The amendment recommended by the 1961 General As-

FIFTH NEGRO CHURCH BURNS IN GEORGIA

MACON, Ga. — An early morning fire leveled St. Matthew Baptist Church Monday Morning.

"It was such a shock," said Rev. C. J. Andrews, pastor. "All I know is that I just don't understand how it could have started."

Andrews estimated the damage at about $35,000.
