Formal Church Ceremony in Danville, Virginia Unites Miss Rosetta Logan, Clarence Williams

DANVILLE, Va. — Miss Rosetta Logan and Clarence Freeman Williams pledged nuptial vows in a double ring ceremony September 8, at five o'clock p.m. at the East New Hope Baptist Church here.

The Reverend Jerome Morris officiated. Music was presented by Miss Carol Tanner, pianist, and Miss Vivian Morris, soloist. Selections included "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of delustered satin, the fitted bodice was designed with a circular neckline edged with tiny pearls and crystals. The long fitted sleeves came to a point over the hand. The full voluminous skirt was caught at the waistline in back with a large matching bow extending into a chapel train. Her finger tip veil of imported illusion was attached to a jewel and pearlized crown. She carried a white Bible centered with white orchids and Lilly of the Valley streamers.

Attending her sister as Maid of Honor was Miss Doris Ann Logan. She wore a dress of sea coral satin with scooped neckline, elbow sleeves, fitted bodice, sheath skirt with floral removable over skirt accented with matching bow in front. She wore a matching headpiece.

The bridesmaids wore dresses like the honor attendant. They were Miss Sylvia Overton of Durham, and Miss Patricia Wells of Washington, D. C.

Ronald Barbee was best man. Ushers were Rufus Simon and George Howard.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Logan of Danville and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lillie Mae Williams of Durham and James A. Williams of Chicago, Illinois.

The bride is a graduate of Lincoln Hospital School of Nursing in Durham and is employed in the Operating Room at Lincoln Hospital of that city.

Williams is a graduate of North Carolina College in Durham, and is presently employed as Director of Physical Education and Recreation at the O'Berry School in Goldsboro.
