Muslims, Powell Aim is Rejected

NEW YORK — An Eastern Seaboard representative of Dr. Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference in an eloquent plea for cooperation between the races to solve human rights problems, has rejected the separatist aims of the Black Muslims and the recent call of Congressman Adam Clayton Powell for exclusion of whites from civil rights organizations.

NEW YORK — They call Jimmy Smith the "King of Soul" among jazz organists and, frankly, there are few people around who'll dispute Jimmy's claim to that title - although he'd rather bestow it upon himself. "I think that it's a wonderful thing," he once said, "to do what you like to do most - and in my case it's playing the organ - and have people like it well enough to pay you for doing it."

got a whopping plug on nationwide television when it was recently introduced on the "Tonight" show with Jonny Carson. This new album, which up his total to around 25 albums, features organ solos and big name band music with contemporary and standard tunes. Jimmy records for both Blue Note and the MGM label.

ARETHA FRANKLIN gave an assist to her sister, Erma, at the recent stint at the State Theatre in Philly. Explained Aretha, after she joined Erma in a rousing, soulful duet, "I always give my sisters a helping hand when we're working the same town."

BILL DOGGETT, one of the original jazz organists and who first clicked with the immortal "Honky Tonk," has waxed a bundle of platters for Columbia Records.

SAM COOKE, the RCA Victor recording artist whose "Send Me Some Lovin'" is a big smash is among the few vocalists who has no imitators.

LITTLE RICHARD'S return to the rhythm and blues field was predicted by this columnist several months ago, after he appeared with an R. and B. band in Europe and almost caused a riot.

He's a young talented jazz organist who seems to be fully aware of where he came from and where he's going.

"Many people have been good to me, and I want to be good to many people," he said.

Jimmy still lives on East Tulphocken street in Philadelphia's Germantown, where he's known as a congenial neighbor who likes to discuss music, crab grass and politics with his neighbors on those rare occasions when he's relaxing at home. During recent weeks he has been in Chicago, Detroit and Atlanta, but right now he's fairly close to home at the Apollo Theatre in New York, where he shares the bill with Duke Ellington and his orchestra.

His latest album, "Hobo Flats,"

LARRY STEELE'S "Smart Affairs" was such a big hit at the Thunderbird Lounge in Las Vegas that T-Bird entertainment director Dave Victorson's bringing Larry back for a return date in September, when the famous producer closes his season at the Club Harlem in Atlantic City, N. J.

SOLOMON BURKE'S early preaching experience is more evident in his new hit, "If You Need Me" waxing than in any of the other tunes he has recorded since his wax debut at the age of 15.
