Stewart Defeats Stith In City Council Primary Over Three To One

Incumbent Also Leads Other Opponent by Heavy Margin

J. S. Stewart, incumbent City Councilman of the Third Ward, defeated both challengers for the post in the Primary race here Saturday, May 1, by over three to one margin.

Stewart's lead over his opponents was the largest ever polled by a Negro candidate in the history of Durham. The Third Ward candidate polled a total of 4,543 votes. His closest opponent was Wm. Joe Lee, white candidate, who polled 1,786 votes. Trailing both Stewart and Lee was David W. Stith, who, in spite of his intensive campaign, was able to poll only 1,466 votes which automatically eliminated him from the race.

STEWART

Although Lee requested of Sigmond Meyer, Chairman of the Durham County Board of Elections, that his name not be placed on the ballot for the municipal election to be held here May 15, a ruling by C. V. Jones, City Attorney, was to the effect that "the five highest candidates shall appear on the ballot. The ruling came as a result of Stith's contention that his name should be on the ballot because of Lee's withdrawal.

It has also been reported that Stith has filed a complaint with the State Board of Elections, charging that certain irregularities exist in the four predominantly Negro precincts. It appears, however, that if Stewart's vote in all four of the predominantly Negro precincts had been omitted he still would have won by a substantial margin.

Brother of State NAACP Head Elected To Charlotte Council

CHARLOTTE—Fred Alexander, brother of Kelly Alexander, state president of the NAACP, was elected to the Charlotte City Council Tuesday.

The first Negro ever elected to the council, Alexander polled 12,726 votes to win seventh place among 14 candidates for seven city council seats.

Citizens also re-elected Stan Brookshire as mayor in the non-partisan election. Brookshire won over former councilman Gibson Smith by almost a two-to-one margin to serve his third term. Brookshire tallied 18,432 votes; white Smith was listed with 9,256.

CHANGE CLASS LENGTH, STANFORD PROF ADVISES

"Class periods of equal length are not realistic today," Dr. D. W. Allen of Stanford University recently announced. "Some subjects require only a little time with the teacher; most of the reading, writing, and research need not be done in a classroom. Other subjects, science or home economics, for example, need longer periods of class instruction and laboratory

Atty. E. Whitted Re-elected to G'boro Council

GOLDSBORO—Earl Whitted, Jr. along with four other incumbents was re-elected to the Goldsboro Board of Aldermen Saturday in one of the lightest voter turnouts in the city's history.

The sole Negro member of the board, Whitted is an attorney. Together with the other aldermen—Billy Griffin, E. Lewis Bryan, and Bill Gibson—he was sworn in at a special organizational meeting for a two-year term Tuesday.

One of the first official acts of the board will be to appoint city department heads as is done annually.

Whitted polled 1,301 votes, placing him fourth after Griffin, who was first with 2,245; Bryan, second with 2,177; and Gibson, third with 1,944. A political newcomer, C. F. (Dutch) Lewis, won the fifth seat with 1,205.

Lincoln Hospital will join other hospitals throughout the nation in marking National Hospital Week, May 9-15. The annual public education event sponsored by the American Hospital Association is full of the theme: "People—Health of the Hospital."

Frank Scott, Administrator of Lincoln, says, "A hospital is a flexible and dynamic institution, responding and reacting to changing health needs of the community." This special observance, he declares, "provides an opportunity for the community to learn more about the hospital services maintained to guard and restore health."

An average of one in every seven persons requires hospitalization each year. This means that every person in the community has a vested interest in the hospital. See HOSPITAL 2A

Young Named To Receive Elks Lovejoy Award

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Elks Grand Exalted Ruler Hobson R. Reynolds announced last week that Whitney P. Young, Executive Director of the National Urban League, had been nominated to receive the 1965 Lovejoy Award.

Reynolds added that the coveted Elks citation would be presented to Young at the public meeting of the Elks Civil Liberties Department on August 16, during the Grand Lodge Convention, here.

The Lovejoy Award commemorates the anti-slavery activities of Elijah Lovejoy. A white newspaper publisher of Lovejoy, Ill., said Lovejoy was murdered on November 7, 1837, for publishing pamphlets advocating abolition of slavery.

The Lovejoy Award was conceived in 1949, during the Grand Lodge Convention at San Francisco, Calif. It is presented each year to that person "regardless of race or color, judged most distinguished for service rendered humanity during the previous year."
