Scarborough-Richardson Vows Spoken at Pleasant Grove

WENDELL—Miss Clara Shu-vonne Richardson and John Clarence Scarborough, II, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, May 29, at the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in Wendell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Richardson of Wendell and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clarence Scarborough, Jr., of Durham.

The nuptial ceremony was performed by the Rev. Melvin Chester Swann, pastor of the St. Joseph's A. M. E. Church of Durham. Mr. and Mrs. John W. McLean presented a program of music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and rochelle lace over silk taffeta designed with a scooped neckline, long sleeves, fitted bodice, and a chapel train with appliques of embroidered lace.

She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and bridal roses, candytuft, fleu d'amour. In the center of the bouquet was a white hybrid orchid with white and silver streamers.

A sister of the bride was the honor attendant. Mrs. Lafayette McDonald of Durham, was matron of honor, and another sister Miss Lavene Richardson of Wendell, and Miss Jerry Poteat of Yanceyville, were bridesmaids.

They wore ballerina length gowns of pink with cerise satin sash and white veils of illusion attached. They carried nosegays of variegated pink carnations and pink lockspur and white carnations with pink streamers.

Clemons H. Baines of Durham was best man. Ushers were Coy Smith, Henry Hayes, Ellis Smith, and William Haskins of Durham.

The bride is a graduate of North Carolina College, majoring in sociology and minoring in psychology. The bridegroom is a graduate of North Carolina College and the Eckel School of Mortuary Science of Philadelphia. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Durham where the bridegroom is

Miss Betty Jo Goodloe Bride of Dr. William E. Merritt, III in White Rock Church Ceremony

The White Rock Baptist Church was the setting Saturday, June 12 for the marriage of Miss Betty Jo Goodloe to Dr. William E. Merritt, III.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend J. Neal Hughley, College Minister, North Carolina College and assisted by the Reverend Miles Mark Fisher, Pastor emeritus of the White Rock Baptist Church. Wedding music was presented by John H. Gattis, organist, and Mrs. Ruth G. Reaves, soloist. There was a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Goodloe of 119 Masondale Ave. and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Merritt of Clinton.

Mr. Goodloe gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown of silk organza fashioned in an empire A line silhouette. The bodice encrusted in Venice lace flower motif featured a scooped neckline and puffed sleeves. A bias fold of ice pink organza underscored the empire waistline with miniature bows accenting the chapel train.

Her triple tiered petal veil of French illusion was attached to a halo of organza roses and valley lilies. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Miss Marsha L. Goodwin was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of blush pink linen fashioned in an A line silhouette. The empire bodice was designed with a scooped neckline and petal bows with Venice lace motifs accenting the shoulder line. She wore a double Dior of blush pink linen with a petal veil, and carried a pink colonial bouquet with cymbidium orchids inserted.

Bridesmaids were dressed like the honor attendant. They were Miss April Henson, cousin of the bride of Baltimore, Miss Linda McLean of Brooklyn, New York; Miss Helen Davis, Miss Doris Schooler, Miss Catherine Pratt, and Mrs. Michael Toole.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother John C. Merritt of Clinton.

Ushers were Dr. Humphrey Jones, New York, N. Y.; Dr. James Hobbs, Los Angeles, California; Dr. Ronald Jefferson, Washington, D. C.; Dr. Randolph Edmonds, Tallahassee, Fla.; Dr. William Bailey, Los Angeles, Calif.; R. J. Lewis, Jr., of Clinton and Carroll Saunders of Gastonia.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore a three piece costume of black and white imported cotton with a white hat, black accessories, and an orchid corsage.

The bride attended Vassar College, and graduated magna cum laude from Howard University. She is a teacher in the public schools of Washington D. C.

Dr. Merritt is a graduate of Hampton Institute and Howard University College of Medicine. He is a member of the Omega Psi Phi fraternity. The bridegroom will be an intern at Freedman's Hospital in Washington where the couple will reside.

NEWS FROM OPERATION BREAKTHROUGH

Warehime said that although he is appealing primarily to women volunteers because they usually have more free time, these also is a need for men and high school students. These volunteers would form a sort of "stand-by" pool rather than work on regular schedules. He said they are needed for providing transportation for taking children on special field trips, and also for assisting in teaching music, art and play activities and in serving lunches.

"Project Head Start", Warehime reminded, is a two-month summer program that will give special experience to 225 children from low-income families that will help them be better prepared to enter the first grade next fall.
