Miss Ellison Is Bride of Jas. H. Williams

Miss Hazel Antoinette Ellison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lindsay Ellison of this city, and James Herman Williams of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Williams of Durham, were united in marriage on Saturday, August 21. The ceremony took place at White Rock Baptist Church at 6 P.M. Rev. Miles Mark Fisher, IV, and Dr. Miles Mark Fisher, pastor-emeritus of the church, officiated. E. Massenburg was the organist and Willie Green, soloist.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white sheath formal gown of delustered satin, designed with a circular neckline, long-fitted sleeves, and a detachable train. Re-embroidered alencon lace trimmed with seed pearls accented the waist, bodice, and skirt.

The bride's veil of bridal illusion was attached to a circle of imported Italian orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid corsage and streamers with sprays of stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Lilla Frances Ellison, sister of the bride. Mrs. Yvonne J. Ellison of New York, the bride's sister-in-law, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Carmen A. Ellison, sister of the bride, Miss Mildred A. Williams of the groom, Mrs. Elayne S. McKaskill and Miss Priscilla L. Harris.

The attendants wore floor-length, empire-style gowns with mint green skirts and kelly green bodices. Their headpieces were kelly green floral combs with pearls and matching veils. They carried long-stemmed pink carnations.

Clifton Williams was his brother's best man. Ushers were Amos Williams, Sylvester Williams, David Ellison, Ben Ruf-
