Elizabeth City Gridders to Field Freshman Team; Loses Six

By JOHN T. WILLIAMS
ELIZABETH CITY — As the players head for another rough and muggy drill on the green, these rapidly printed words, "Put up or shut up, or do both; at least do something," challenge them.

After losing ten of his starting eleven and six first string reserves from the line, Coach Tom Caldwell does not have the material to "put up" against this year's eight game slate. Entering his fifth year as head mentor at Elizabeth City State College, the veteran coach can at best put together a basically freshman squad with a few veterans mixed in at key spots. Strangely enough, despite the dismal situation, the Viking strategist is not "shutting up."

nor is he crying the blues. First to account for this note of optimism is the fact that Elizabeth City was able to recruit the best crew of freshman gridders in years. "They are shaping up rapidly and showing high spirit and good determination," Caldwell stated.

Secondly, the coaching staff has been strengthened and enlarged to make rebuilding the squad a more rapid and successful task. Returning is Caldwell's right hand man, Roy F. Knight, who joined the staff in 1962. Coming over from Norfolk State is the veteran assistant John Turpin. Joining the brain nucleus are two dedicated products of Elizabeth City's growing Physical Education and Athletic programs, Alvin Kelly, former team manager, and Andrew Littlejohn, former guard in the Viking line.

Sizing things up after just one week of practice Coach Caldwell remarked, "We are definitely going to beat somebody." This means that the Vikings of Elizabeth City State College will be "doing something" this year. Now who they will beat and when depend on many factors.

NEW COACH—Jacob K. Bentley, former football and tennis coach at Elizabeth State College, joined the Saint Augustine's coaching staff recently. A native of Albany, Georgia, Bentley was graduated Magna Cum Laude from Albany State College. While at Albany State, he was elected to membership in Alpha Kappa Mu and Who's Who Among Colleges and Universities. He was also first in his class at North Carolina College at Durham where he received his M.S. degree. The youthful mentor, whose specialty is the backfield, admits that he feels quite at home when coaching linesmen and ends, won thirteen of his twenty tennis matches last season.

Armstrong Picks Stanwyck For Big Valley

Television Emmy Award winner Barbara Stanwyck, who has also been honored by four nominations for Hollywood's Oscar, returns to TV as star of "The Big Valley" starting September 15, on ABC.

BIG VALLEY, CALIFORNIA — A new western series in color, so lavish and expertly written that viewers feel they are watching a major feature film rather than a video drama, brings Barbara Stanwyck back to the living room tube this autumn.

The weekly hour-long show on ABC-TV, four years in the preparation, is "The Big Valley." Sponsored by Armstrong, manufacturer of flooring and acoustical ceiling materials, it is set in California's San Joaquin Valley around 1870 and draws material from the most colorful and exciting single decade of the past century.

Miss Stanwyck plays the tough yet elegant head of a family dynasty rich in oil, cattle, crops and land. Richard Long and Peter Breck, both veterans of their own successful TV series in past seasons, are her oldest sons and supervise the clan's financial and ranching operations, respectively. The unusual format permits segments to be set against such varied backgrounds as San Francisco, the Valley grapelands and wineries, railroading centers or the ranchlands.

Completing the continuing cast are newcomers Lee Majors, Linda Evans and Charles Briles. "The Big Valley" will be seen Wednesday evenings in most locales, premiering Sept. 15.

AUGUSTA, Maine — Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston's fate was once again in the hands of the court—but this time only his money was at stake.

Liston, who has been in and out of trouble with the law, fought Cassius Clay for the heavyweight title in Lewiston in May.

Not only did he lose the bout but attorneys for Associated Booking Corp. of New York attached $69,000 in gate receipts from the bout, contending that Liston cut short a European tour and cost the company that amount.

Supreme Court Justice Walter M. Tapley Jr. subsequently dismissed the action on grounds that the attachment was improperly served, and the matter went to the full court.

Attorneys for both sides argued the matter before the full bench, and the high court took the case under advisement.
