Teens Step Into Fashion

The picture has changed—and teens set the fashion in chic, young coats and suits. Femininity is the look this season—and many a teenage miss is finding that "it's nice to be a girl." All the female niceties are appearing—flared skirts, interesting collar and pockets—and warmth is emphasized, too, in fabrics and linings. Beauty and duty take a bow in this selection of National Board of the Coat and Suit Industry. The piled-in, wool melton coat has flattering low waist, flap pockets, metal-button closing, contrast collar. Camel with grey, brown with camel. Teen sizes 6-14. About $35.

Don M. Thomas Named To Chrysler Co. Personnel Staff

DETROIT — Appointment of Don M. Thomas as a personnel staff executive in Chrysler Corporation's personnel placement, recruitment and development week by Robert F. Bowers, director of personnel relations. He succeeds Charles W. Wexler who recently was named to the legal staff of Chrysler Corporation.

Thomas, a native of Oberlin, Ohio, joins Chrysler Corporation from American Airlines, where he served eight years as an administrator in personnel relations and on the company's legal staff.

For the past 15 months Thomas has been on loan to the U.S. government to serve as administrative coordinator for national Plans for Progress and also directly coordinated Vice President Humphrey's Task Force for Youth Motivation. He also was associated with Hobart Taylor, Jr., vice chairman of the President's Committee on Equal Opportunity.

Born August 19, 1930, Thomas attended Oberlin High School, and graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1952 with a bachelor of arts degree. While at Hamilton, Thomas earned five varsity athletic letters, was regent of the Emerson Literary Society, and chairman of the Honor Court.

In 1961, he received his L.L.B. degree from New York Law School and has taken post-graduate corporate law courses at Columbia University.

While in New York, Thomas was a member of the Urban

GASTONIA SORORITY TO PRESENT DR. HELEN EDMONDS ON FEB. 6

GASTONIA—Gastonia Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority will present Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, Dean of the Graduate School of North Carolina College at Durham, as guest speaker for Founders Day. The program will be presented at St. Stephens AME Zion Church at 3:30 p.m. on Feb. 6. Mrs. Peggy Ferguson, president, will present Dr. Edmonds.

Music for the occasion will be by Highland High School mixed chorus directed by F. E. Davis; and by the A capella Delta Sorority ensemble. The Greek Medley and candle lighting service will be played by Mrs. Jacqueline Hairston of the Charlotte Sorority. Each Greek organization will stand and light a candle as each Greek number is played.

Dr. Edmonds, internationally known as a speaker and a scholar, was educated at St. Paul's Normal School, Lawrenceville, Va., Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md., A.B., Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, M.A. and Ph.D. degrees. She did post-doctoral work in research at the University of Heidelberg, West Germany. The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon her by Morgan State College for her work in international relations June 2, 1958. She was awarded the plaque as Woman of the Year by the Bachelors-Benedict Social Club of Norfolk, Va. for civic and educational activities, June 13, 1958.

Dr. Edmonds was the first Negro woman selected to second the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. She seconded the nomination of President Dwight D. Eisenhower for his second term, at the Republican National Convention, San Francisco, California, August 22, 1956.

Her superior ability as a scholar has won for her the following grants to pursue study and research in history: General Education Board, two grants; Ford Fund for the Advancement of Education, and the Carnegie Foundation Grant in Aid. She has also written books, numerous monographs, articles for professional magazines and historical pageants. She is affiliated with many professional organizations; and holds memberships in a number of honorary societies in recognition of conspicuous attainment and scholarship in the field of history.

She was personal representative of President Eisenhower to the dedication ceremonies of the Liberian Capitol Building, Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa in 1957. She addressed the assembled Liberian Government and traveled extensively in Africa by appointment of the President.

Gastonia Deltas feel honored to present her to the Gastonia audience for founders day observance of the sorority.

MISS LEE

GILDA H. LEE TO BECOME FEB. BRIDE

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — George W. Lee, vice president of both the Atlanta Life Insurance Company and the Tri-State Bank, announces the forthcoming marriage of his daughter Miss Gilda Hattie Lee.

Miss Lee, a freshman at Mount St. Claire College at Clinton, Iowa, will be married to John Franklin Hill III of Detroit, a member of the communications department of Federal Mogul Corporation there. He is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles.
