Calendar of Varied Events

The Harriet Tubman Branch YWCA has released plans for summer activities. Activities which have been planned are varied and set up to include all ages. The usual summer Day Camp, Arts and Crafts for Adults and Children, Sewing for Adults and Children, Recreational Sports and Summer Tours have been scheduled.

In addition to regular activities the YWCA has planned. according to Miss Rupert Blanchard, Executive Director . coed events which will include, Swimming, Group Suppers and Teas, Games, Out -Door Entertainment, and a Hobby Show

In addition to the co-ed events, plans have been made include Durham's young couples one night per week. Neither the co-ed events nor the couples group has been ofby Harriet Tubman YWCA as summer activities before this year, according to Miss Blanchard.

For those wanting family entertainment, the "Y" is seeking registration in the YWCA, Walltown, East End, and Hayes-town areas for Badmintor Leagues. Accelerated Reading, Religious Discussions, Arts and Crafts, Recreational Activities, and First Aid are unrelated interest groups which are being combined into a program called Hobby House. This acitvity will focus on senior high school boys and girls.

The resident Camp will be held this year at Reedy Creek State Park, July 10-23. Other classes and activities will include Guitar, Nutrition, Piano, Pre-School Swim, and Remedial Reading.
