YOUR CAT: A GLAMOUR KITTY?

Some of history's most coddled cats lived in ancient Egypt, where they were held sacred to the god Ra and the goddess Isis. Egyptians even built cat temples!

Today, many cats retain an aristocratic bearing, and proud cat owners across the U.S. can enter their pets in the 1967 Glamour Kitty Contest, until April 16, 1967, sponsored by makers of Kitty Pan Cat Litter.

All cats—alley cats (with sponsors), housecats, kitty-cats and regal cats—are eligible. Pedigrees aren't necessary.

The four finalists and owners will be flown via Eastern Airlines to Miami Beach for the pageant and coronation at the Fountainbleau Hotel. The grand winner will wear a mink-trimmed coronation cape and be crowned with a jewel-studded tiara designed by Morris Goodman.

King (or Queen) Cat will also make guest appearances with (human) celebrities, and have his own personal butler from Call Arthur Treacher Service System.

To enter your favorite feline, you'll need a "glamorous" picture of the cat, a 100-word-or-less essay on "Why My Cat Should Be Glamour Kitty of 1967", and the entry blank or a facsimile of it. Entry blanks may be found inside any size bag of Kitty Pan Cat Litter that bears the new contest design.

A PINK AND FLUFFY VALENTINE CAKE

A special to the young set... it's party time. With Valentine Day rapidly approaching you have a built-in excuse (as if you needed one) to have a party. Valentine parties can be so much fun. You can go all out with your imagination and create colorful party decorations, you know, hearts and cupid, bows and arrows, and the like.

Alert the gang that the "happenings" are going to be at your house, plan your decorations and a simple, but fun-to-make menu, and you have the party started.

Cooking is so much easier for today's teen-ager because of the many wonderful convenience foods. An ideal suggestion for a party menu would include Valentine Cake and Party Punch. Both of these easy-to-make recipes are basically prepared from convenience products which keep on the pantry shelf.

The Valentine Cake, pale pink with a creamy filling and fluffy frosting uses lemon flake cake mix and coconut cream pie filling among the main ingredients. The fluffy pink frosting is a delight to make with whipped topping mix and a drop or two of red food coloring. Sprinkle coconut around the edge of the top and on sides of the cake and you indeed have a masterpiece. Your friends will think you are a cooking genius when you bring this moist pink delight to the party table.

Party Punch, the perfect accompaniment, combines raspberry instant soft drink mix and grape juice, to make the swiftest punch around. So check with Mom, send out the word, prepare the goodies... and have a ball!
