h Film Laboratories) Chatham Rd. ston-Salem, N. C.

A Voteless People is A

PRICE: 20c

VOLUME 44 - No. 18

DURHAM, N. C. - SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1967

125-Year-Old N. C. Native Granted Divorce

FIRST NEGRO IN POST - sociation for a three year term (Grand Rapids, Mich.) - Mrs. at the organization's national here), of Grand Rapids, Mich., Mrs. Claytor is the first Negro was elected President of the to hold the post. Young Women's Christian As-Claytor (shown convention at Boston April 28.

Dr. S. E. Duncan Named to Presidency of NCC Churches

SALISBURY-Dr. S. E. Duncan. President of Livingstone College, was elected president of the North Carolina Council of Churches during its annual meeting last week at Winston-Salem A former Vice President of the Council of Churches and a layman, he becomes the first Negro to head the state-wide organization.

A native of Kentucky and graduate of Livingstone Col-lege, Dr. Duncan received the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., and has held numerous positions and offices in education, the church and at the state level. He has taught at Washington High School, Reidsville; and served as principal of the Dunbar High School, East

Spencer; and was State Superviser of Negro Schools with the See DUNCAN page 2A

Curb Disruptive Activities

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) A proposed merger of 10 Protestant denominations in-Protestant denominations involving 25 million members and 68,000 ministers has evolved from a four - day meeting of the Consultation on Church Union COCU.

AME Involved

The shortcut plan to unity with details to be worked out during the coming year, calls for the 10 denominations to merge under an interim governing council without waiting to draft a form al

"WE ARE much more closely bound together and more determined to remain that way than ever before' said the Rev. Dr. David G. Colwell at the close of the Thursday meeting. Colwell, chairman of the COCU and pastor of the First Congrega-tional United Church of Christ in Washington said the delegates "floundered around at first" but later showed "less partisans hip than was present at some of four previous meetings and a greater sense of unity."

Hammocks annual Pilgrimage set

RALEIGH, N.C. — The 17th Annual Hammocks Pilgrimage Celebration at Swansboro, will take place on Saturday May 20.

Bus transportation will be available from Henderson, Raleigh and Durham. Persons planning to make the trip by bus may contact W. R. Collins at 125 East Hargett St., Raleigh or 304 Formosa Ave., Durham,

Plan Merger of Reginald D. Smith Elected To ard U. President James M. Nabrit, Jr. last week issued a Statement of University Policy Denominations; Chapel Hill Board Aldermen graduate of Dillard High School, Goldsboro, a 1940 graduate of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., and a teacher in Chapel Hill City Schools for 24 years was elected to the Chapel Hill Board of Aldermen for a period of four years on May 2. Smith served the unexpired term of Mrs Mary Prothro who had resigned to go to Chile.

Smith is married to the former Miss Euzelle Patterson of Newport News, Va. and they have 4 children, Andrea, 18, a freshman at North Carolina College; Pamela and Patrice, twins, nine and Reginald, II,

Upon graduation from Hampton he served for 2 years 1940. 42, as a farm manager. During World War II, he served with the 933rd Automatic Weapons Battalion as Master Gunner in the Pcific Theatre of Opera-

ing served 6 years as a member Recreation Commission: Board

There was every indication this week that the closing hours of the Carolina Times throwing all they have into the battle, the Contest Manager is pens in the way of a last minute overwhelming number of subscriptions or any surprise contestant's move that may be made in the closing moments

Still holding to the top position as the official closing hour Mrs. Agnes Lee, Burlington of Durham. Trailing Mrs. Car- Mrs. Mary Boddie, Tarboro

See CONTEST 2A

in second and third place Mrs Bradsher, Roxboro of the contest.

8:00 p.m., will set a record. With the goal line now in sight and all active contestants

Standings of Contestants

Mrs. Aline Baldwin, Chapel Hill
Mrs. Rosa O. Bass, Rougemont
Mrs. Delois Boyd, High Point
Mrs. Delois Boyd, High Point

Mrs. Geraldine Alston, Chapel Hill
Mrs. Pearline Lennon, Durham

Mrs. Mary H. Clifton, Winston-Salem

Mrs. Ruth Worley, Greensboro

Miss Mary Curry, Smithfield
Mrs. Nancy G. Wilson, Rocky Mount

of Directors of Hi-Y and Red Cross: Cub Scoutmaster; Governors Commission on Education; Chapel Hill - Carrboro Civic Club. Smith holds membership Vocational Association, Enterof the Chapel Hill Planning prise Lodge 347 Prince Hall F. der shall not be permitted un-Board; a former member of the and A.M. of N. C. and is a Dis- der any circumstances, the See ELECTED 2A

Subscription Contest, which Mrs. J. A. Carter, Burham will end Monday, May 15, at Mrs. Oneida McGhee, Durham

preparing for whatever hap Benjamin Williams, Oxford

N. C. Gets $805,484 For

Mrs. Doris J. Hopkins, Kinston Mrs. Willie B. Chapman, Grifton Paul Mason, Durham Mrs. Daisy Kizzie, Durham

Mrs. Fannie Dunlap, Winston-Salem

ard U. President James M. Na-Statement of University Policy designed to curtail what he called recent "indefensible and disruptive activities" at Hoard. Such activities have disrupted the educational program at the Universiy, he said, and cannot be permitted to continue if Howard is to maintain dignity and order within its environs. Proposed by the Steering Committee of the University

Senate and adopted unanimously by the Senate's legislative body, the University Council, the statement has been approved by the Howard Board of Trustees. It also has re ceived the commendation of the full University Senate, compris ing more than 200 senior facul-

The Statement of Policy places Cramton Auditorium and other University lecture halls off limits to protesters, bans the blocking of building entrances, and prohibits all activities that may be characterized as racist or bigoted.

The statement goes on to point out that the University will not interfere with the inin the North Carolina Teach- dividual's right to demonstrate He has been active in civic ers Association, National Eduas long as such action does not affairs of the community, have cation Association, American disrupt planned University acers Association, National Edu- as long as such action does not

Former Slave, Union Soldier Believed America's Oldest Man

Tightens as Race Nears End NCM Official President

Thaddeus B. Gaillard, Associ-

Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company has resigned his posi- adopted a resolution memorialtion to accept the presidency izing and congratulating Magee of Great Lakes Mutual Life on his 124th birthday. Presi-Insurance Co. of Detroit, Mich. dent Johnson sent a letter of it was announced here this congratulations. Paul B. John-with N. C. Mutual, April 16, this remarkable Negro citizen.

1962 as Director of Training. commemorated the date of his In January 1964, he was elevat- birth by an official proclams ed to the position of Assistant tion, which stated in part that Agency Director where he perin so far as is known "Sylvestformed with such efficiency he er Magee is the oldest living was elected in January 1966 as person in the United States." Associate Agency Director. President of N. C. Mutual stat- signing up for Medicare bene See GAILLARD page 2A

Fought In Union Army For Freedom Of His People

Slyvester Magee, former slave, sole and only surviving soldier of the Civil War, and the oldest citizen of the state of Mississippi, will celebrate his 126th birthday on May 29.

Magee, who has resided in Mississippi for more than a century, was granted a divorce from his fourth wife in March of this year on the grounds that she deserted him. She and her 17-year-old daughter (born when Magee was but 109) are reportedly living in Pough keepsie, New York

In a recent telephone con versation with his attorney W. Arlington Jones of Hatties Arlingen built the Carolina Times rered confirmation and au-Dentication of Magee's valiant service with the Union Army during the war between the states. He was wounded twice while actually serving under

In the summer of 1965, both ate Agency Director of North the Mississippi House of Representatives and the Senate. veek, Gaillard became connected recognizing the longevity of Soewhat less memoriable W. A. Clement, Agency Vice in the same year was Magee's ed this week that Gaillard is fits although he has scarcely 10 Negroes Holding Public Office In Calif.

OUTCOME OF RECENT LOCAL ELECTIONS

SACRAMENTO, Calif. - Ten Negroes have been added to the rolls of California Negroes who hold public offices in the State as the result of recent local elections, according to the Conference of Negro Elected Chairman of the Conference, Senator Mervyn M. Dymally, Los Angeles, announced re-cently that the new office holders have taken two positions as City Councilmen and eight positions as school board members throughout the State.

Dymally stated the Confer ence now has a total of sixty members, ranging from a Congressman to a City Clerk, and is optimistic that another Negro will be elected to the Compton City Council within two weeks. Two members of the Conference were defeated in reelection bids for school board districts.

The newly-elected members their positions and hometowns are as follows: Berkeley, City Council: Ron

Compton, Elementary School District: Dr. William K. Payne Jardine Wilson, and Wendell

Handy. High School District: Dr. Walter Tucker. Junior College District: Dr.

Matthew Jenkins Milpitas, Elementary School District: Gilbert Brooks. Sacramento, Losa Rios Junior College District: Dr. George

San Bernardino, City Coun eil: Norris Gregory. San Mateo, Elementary School District: Mrs. Mary Joe Howell,

"Negro College as We Know it has no future

GREENSBORO - "A and T College has no future as an exclusive Negro college and does not intend to continue as

That was the opinion expressed last week by Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy, A. and T. president. He made the satement, along with others in a television interview on the fhirty-minute, 'Newsmaker Program", a weekly feature of the Greensboro WFMY-TV. He appeared as guest during the A. and T. observance of its Diamond Anniversary He said the predominant Negro college must continue to strengthen its program so that its offerings and its "respecta-bility" will be unquestioned by any group, anywhere. "The future of his institution, like any institution, now rests entirely on quality," said

MISS. MRS. MR.

1,000 POINTS VOTE COUPON 1,000 POINTS

The Carolina Times

THIS COUPON GOOD UNTIL MON., MAY 15, 1967

Annual Subscription Contest $

In the interview, Dr. Dowdy said: "While integration See DOWDY page 2A

W Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare John W. Gardner announced this week approval of 12 Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA) projects for North Carolina costing $844,307, of which $805,484 will be Federal MDTA funds. One project, to be conducted at Asheville Buncombe Technical Institute, Asheville, will train 16 medical laboratory assistants for 52 weeks, Federal cost $88,892, total cost $94,614. Central Piedmont Community College will train 20 telephone operators (PBX) for 34 weeks, Federal cost $45,430, total $46,961. This project will be conducted in Charlotte, Three projects will be con ducted at Durham Technical Instnitute, one to train 40 combination welders for 38 weeks, Federal cost $106,594, total $110,767; another to train 40 der Title VII, created the Equal entry furniture upholsterers for 38 weeks, Federal cost $115, mission (EEOC). 228 total $120.487: another to train 40 auto service station mechanics for 34 weeks, Federal cos $92,433, total $95,963. Four projects will be con- plant in Richmond, in a class Garolina Times. The above See MANPOWER 2A See CHARGES 2A scene was taken at the school ITTO IT SAN POP!

ATLANTA, Ga.-A regional spokesman for the U.S. Department of Labor here said Philip Morris that U. S. Secretary of Labor Charged With Bias by LDF

Manpower Training Project

RICHMOND, Va. - Attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund. Inc. (LDF) this week asked the Federal District Court here for an injunction against alleged racial discrimination on the part of the Philip Morris Tobacco Company.

The case was argued in be half of two Negro employees-Douglas H. Quarles and Epriam

Briggs. It is the first case to go to trial as a result of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which, under Title VII, created the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which, un-Employment Opportunity Com-

LDF attorneys charged in

Executed to the start

RETIRING AS A TEACHER in on Monday evening, May 8, of Durham County Schools and their complaint that Quarles, a School of Durham County this Department in the B and L wife of the publisher of the perintendent Charles Chewning ent.

the Lakewood Elementary when co-workers honored Mrs. is signed by all members of the Austin with the presentation Durham County Board of Edulaborer in the Pre-Fabrication month is Mrs. Stella V. Austin, of a Certificate of Merit. The cation. Principal of Lakeview presentation was made by Su- School is Mrs. Frances S. Clem

(Photo by Parefoy)