REV. McCASKILL

Mount Bright Pastor Holds D. C. Revival

HILLSBOROUGH—Rev. Benjamin C. McCaskill, pastor of the Mt. Bright Baptist Church of Hillsborough, was recently the guest evangelist at a City-wide Revival in Washington, D. C. The revival was sponsored by the Baptist Convention of the District of Columbia.

Rev. McCaskill a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University, is a new comer to this area. He is formerly of York, S. C.

On Friday night the Gospel Choir of Mt. Bright Baptist Church accompanied by Deacon W. W. Fairbault, Rev. Alston Mack and wife were guests at the revival.

Rev. McCaskill entered the ministry as a boy preacher. He has conducted revivals in practically every state along the Eastern Coast, prior to his invitation to conduct the City-wide revival in Washington. In addition he has preached in Canada and the Caribbean Islands.

Fannie Dixon Takes Honors In Home Ec.

MISS DIXON

Miss Fannie O. Dixon, daughter of Mrs. Odessa Dixon and of the late James M. Dixon was named top-ranking home economics student at Merrick-Moore School, Mrs. Juanita W. Taylor announced.

As the outstanding Home Economics senior, Miss Dixon received the Sterling Silver Homemaking Award for 1967. The Award, a six piece place setting of sterling flatware, was presented to Miss Dixon on June 5 by James Stewart at the Awards Day Program.

The pattern for the Award sterling was selected by the Home Economics students as part of a special project in Consumer Education, and the silver has been on display in the Home Economics Department throughout the year.

The Award is made available by the Sterling Silversmiths Guild of America in recognition of the fine work being done today in high school Home Economics Education, and stimulate students interested in the Homemaking Arts.

Miss Dixon was member of the Dramatics Club, The Future Homemakers of America,

A TRIBUTE TO THE CLERGY

Because our contacts with the clergymen of our community are frequent and varied, we must admit that we have sometimes been guilty of taking their selfless devotion for granted. May we then at this time express our appreciation for the many gracious services they render without complaint and often with little or no reward.
