MRS. GEORGE TAYLOR, JR.

Miss Cheryl Johnice Lucas Weds George Taylor, Jr. in White Rock Church Ceremony

The White Rock Baptist Church was the setting Sat., July 15, for the 6 o'clock p.m. wedding of Miss Cheryl Johnice Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harding Lucas, to George Felton Taylor, Jr. He is the son of Mrs. Louise Cobb and George Felton Taylor, Sr. of Detroit, Michigan.

The couple was attended by a bridal party of thirty.

Lighting of the candles by Miss Thomasine Bass was the cue for the soloists Miss Patricia Ruth Reaves, and Mrs. Margaret K. Goodwin. The attendants entered the church to the strains of Beazley's, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." The bride, escorted by her father, came down the aisle on the arm of George Felton Taylor, Jr. The wedding was officiated by Rev. Dr. Ann Heath, pastor of the church. The ceremony was held at 6 o'clock p.m. in the sanctuary of the church. The bride wore a white gown with a full-length train and a full-length veil. The groom wore a dark suit. The wedding was attended by a large number of guests. The bride and groom were accompanied by a large party of thirty. The wedding was a most enjoyable event. The above scene was taken during the social hour, following Dr. Heath's address. From left to right are Mesdames Minerva Evans, Robert McNeil and Cora Brown, chairman of the refreshments committee. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Lorenzo A. Lynch, Pastor of the White Rock Baptist Church. A reception at the Washington Duke Ball Room for more than five-hundred guests followed the wedding ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, John Harding Lucas, Principal of Hillside High School, wore a princess skimmer of peau de sole with beaded lace accenting the cap sleeves and scoop neckline. The skirt and back panel of her A-line gown were appliqued and edged in lace. He detachable wattleau chapel train featured a scalloped lace border.

The honor attendant wore a full length empire A-line gown in apricot chiffon. The bodice, with accordin pleated elbow sleeves, was accented at the waistline by orange ice satin, with a flat bow and streamers at the center back. The bridesmaids wore copies of the honor attendant's gown.

The maid of honor was Diana Briscoe of Memphis, Tennessee. Other attendants were Angela R. Bryant, Rocky Mount; Patricia A. Colson, Oxford; Doris Dillard, Los Angeles, California; Florietta Gilreath, Oxford; Janice Brewer, Regina George, Sylvia Smith, Sylvia Sloan, Cynthia Smith, Carolyn Walker, and Eileen Watts of Durham.

Richard Hughes of Detroit, Michigan was best man. The other groomsmen were John H. Lucas, Jr., brother of the bride; Herbert S. Taylor, Floyd W. Mitchell, Lou R. Beatty, Gerald P. Henry, Buford Keigler and Gentry B. Cabill also of Detroit, Michigan; Benjamin Lewis, Jr. of Richmond, Virginia; William Bostic, Chattanooga, Tennessee; and Jan Stanback of Durham.

The couple, formerly attending Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee, are now students at Wayne State University and Michigan State University. They will make their home in Detroit, Michigan, where the groom is President of Cobp Associates, Inc.
