Young Durham Woman Named To Peace Corps

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Miss Judith C. Grandy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Grandy, 1005 Crete St., Durham, has recently been named a Peace Corps Volunteer after completing ten weeks of training at the Peace Corps Training Center in Hilo, Hawaii.

She is one of the 171 new Volunteers who will teach in Philippine elementary schools. The Volunteers will work with Filipino co-teachers to broaden the base of education in the communities and introduce modern methods of teaching English, science and mathematics. Volunteers will also participate in extracurricular activities such as community action and rice demonstration projects.

During their training, the Volunteers studied three Philippine dialects: Tagalog, Ilocano and Cebuano. They also studied Philippine history and culture and practice taught. Their arrival on September 16 brings the number of Peace Corps Volunteers in the Philippines to over 725, engaged in education, community development, secretarial work and occupational therapy.

ANGRY GROUP—(Washington)

—An angry group of poor Negro mothers conduct a sit-in at a Senate hearing room, demanding that the entire Finance Committee membership hear their protest against House-passed welfare curbs. Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., and Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla., listened to the protest for a while. Shortly thereafter, Long left, telling newsmen it was up to Capitol Police to clear the hearing room.

Over 300 Negro Office Holders to Stage Meet

CHICAGO — More than 300 Negroes who hold elective office from Congressman to Board of Education members throughout the country will participate in a three-day, non-partisan, hard-working educational conference to seek answers and methods on how the Negro can better participate in the total economic and political life of the nation, from September 29 through October 1, at the University of Chicago's Center for Continuing Education, at 1307 East 60th Street, Chicago, Illinois.

This historic meeting will be strictly educational in nature with no political structure or elections, and no political resolutions are expected," declared Manhattan Borough President Percy E. Sutton, of New York City, and State Senator Mervyn M. Dymally of Los Angeles, Conference Co-Chairmen.

State Representative A. June Franklin, a democrat of Des Moines, Iowa, is Conference Secretary, and State Representative Woodrow Wilson, a Republican, of Las Vegas, Nevada, is Conference Coordinator.

The Conference, agreed upon by a group of 28 elected officials from 11 states at a plan-July 29, will open on Friday evening, September 29 and will continue at the Center through Sunday afternoon, October 1. Center officials are assisting the Conference officials in arranging final details.

Discussion papers have been prepared in specific areas by experts in various fields and a panel of distinguished Negro and white government, private and civic leaders will present their views on them to the Conference delegates in a series of closed workshop and panel sessions. In addition, study sessions will be held to assist the elected officials on where and how to get government, foundation, and civic assistance for their respective communities.

The purpose of the Conference is to assist the elected Negro public officials in fulfilling his role as an elected official by exploring positions and building a dialogue on various issues designed to help secure greater participation in the decision-making processes of the political power structure of both parties.

History Group To Meet At A&T State U.

GREENSBORO — More than 500 persons are expected to attend the 52nd annual meeting of the Association For The Study of Negro Life and History here October 12-15.

The opening session of the conference will be held October 12 at 8 p.m. in the Harrison Auditorium of A&T State University. All other sessions will be held at the Statler-Hilton Voyager Inn.

Special presentations planned for the conference this year are a memorial service honoring the memory of the late Negro poet Langston Hughes and a symposium on the teaching of Negro history in the schools.

Arthur P. Davis of Howard University and Samuel Allen, poet and general counsel of the Department of Justice's Community Relations Service will present papers honoring Langston Hughes.

Allan D. Pierson of Yale University will be in charge of the session of the teaching of Negro history.

Noted scholars who will participate in the program include Kenneth B. Clark, professor of psychology at City College of New York; John Hope Franklin of the University of Chicago; Robert M. Calhoon, and Frank Melton of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro; and Samuel DuBois Cook of Duke University; and C. H. Wesley, executive director of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History.

J. Reuben Sheeler of Texas Southern University is president of the Association and F. H. White and Dr. Darwin T. Turner of A&T are chairman and co-chairman of the conference.
