

City To Host 24th Annual NAACP Convention Nov. 24-26

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBIDDEN

VOLUME 44 — No. 44 DURHAM, N. C. — SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1967 PRICE: 20¢

N. C. Teachers Association To Meet In Fayetteville Nov. 17

Over 1500 are Expected at NCTA Session

FAYETTEVILLE—More than 1,500 public school teachers are expected to converge on Fayetteville State College's campus for the annual meeting of the Southeastern District of the North Carolina Teachers Association (NCTA), Friday, November 17th.

"Commitment to Action" is the theme of the one-day session.

Registration for the meeting will be held in Lilly Gymnasium starting at 8:30 a.m. Exhibits from industry and professional organizations will be on display in the building.

The general session, Seabrook Auditorium, 2:45 - 4:00 will feature a panel discussion led by officials of the NCTA. Words of welcome will be extended by Dr. Rudolph Jones, president of FSC; Mayor Monroe Evans, C. Reid Ross, Superintendent of Fayetteville City Schools; and F. D. Byrd, Superintendent of Cumberland County Schools. Music will be provided by E. E. Smith High School and Bladen Central High School, Elizabethtown.

A. C. Dawson, Executive Secretary, North Carolina Education Association (NCEA) and E. B. Palmer, Executive Secretary of the NCTA, will discuss the forthcoming merger of the two organizations at a Board of Directors' luncheon at a downtown restaurant beginning at 12:30 p.m.

L. D. Muldrow, principal Artesia High School, Hallsboro, is president of the Southeastern District of NCTA and will preside at the luncheon and general session.

Departmental and Sectional meetings will commence at 9 a.m.

Last Rites Held For Dr. Clement In Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, GA.—Atlanta University President Rufus Early Clement died in New York on Tuesday, November 7, from a heart attack. The president was in New York to attend an annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Atlanta University, of which he had served as president since 1937.

Born in Salisbury, North Carolina, Dr. Clement was an instructor and professor of history at Livingston College from 1922 to 1931 and served as dean of Municipal College, University of Louisville, until 1937.

Former Instructor at NCC Elevated Director Peace Corps

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In view of the great impact that Dr. Walker has had upon Peace Corps Training and Institutional Relations, he was recently elevated to Director of Training for the entire Africa Region - East, South, West and French Speaking. Dr. Walker's responsibilities will involve contact with all Africa countries in which Peace Corps Volunteers are now serving or will serve in the near future. His work will also mean that he will deal directly with the training sites at the universities in the USA as well as the In-House centers at the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

It is expected that Dr. Walker will soon leave for an extended tour of West and French Speaking Africa to evaluate the work of Volunteers in the field and to discuss training problems with Country Representatives.

(See PEACE CORPS 2A)

JAMES ERNEST WHITLEY is shown being presented the annual citation at Mt. Zion Baptist Church here, Sunday, November 12. The citation is given for services rendered. The presentation was made by Spencer Wynne of Mt. Zion, while the pastor, Dr. William H. Fuller is seen looking on.

Many Noted Personalities On Program

North Carolina Branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will hold their annual conference in Durham, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 24, 25 and 26. The Convention will focus on "The Problems of the Poor - A Challenge", and will include the participation of George Esser, Director of The North Carolina Fund, and Ben Ruffin, Director of Durham's United Organization for Community Improvement.

A number of national officials will attend the conference, and a special address will be given by Gloster B. Current, National Director of NAACP Branches and Field Administration Department.

Within the context of the convention theme, the problems of the poor in employment, housing, education, voter registration, and life in the cities, will be studied and discussed.

The convention will be held at the Jack Tar Hotel, and will last all day. The public is invited to "come where the action is" for an open meeting at the hotel at 8 p.m., Friday the 24th of November.

King In London

LONDON (UPI) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in England to receive an honorary degree from the University of Newcastle, said Sunday that England should be "eternally vigilant" to prevent the development of racial problems.

Negro Civil Rights Leaders Oppose Separatism Program

Williams Urges Integration of NCC Confab

A highly-placed Federal civil rights official last Thursday urged Negro students to prepare for life in an integrated society, rather than joining a "separatist" movement.

Harold B. Williams, assistant director of the Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, said, "We are looking for progress, not retreat. I hope that as you decide which way to go next, you will elect to move forward among the avenues of education, economics, and politics as a contributing part of society."

"The best way to influence decisions that affect your lives is to rise to the level at which decisions are made," the Negro civil rights officer said.

Williams told his audience of high school teachers and students attending the annual Resource-Use Conference at North Carolina College, "In my opinion, the Negro youth who prepares himself only for life in a segregated society is depriving himself of whatever oppor-

See LEADERS 2A

PROPAGANDA IN THE JUNGLE—(South Vietnam)—Somewhere in the jungle battlefields of South Vietnam, this soldier came across a message written on a tombstone-like marking. The writing, addressed to the Negro soldiers, is a sample of the popaganda promoted by Communist Viet Cong in this war-torn country.

A&T State U. And NCC To Meet In Annual Grid Classics

AGGIES-EAGLES GIRD FOR TOUGH N. C. SPECTACLE

GREENSBORO—Although the current season has been a frustrating one for both A&T and North Carolina College, an explosive football game is expected when the two arch rivals meet here.

With a 2-5-1 record, A&T holds a slight edge over the Eagles who will come into the game with a 1-6-1 record.

A record crowd is expected to be on hand for the 37th game between the two CIAA foes. The Aggies will be trying to extend the 18-15 margin they hold in the series. Three of the games have ended in a tie.

The Aggies this season were "late bloomers," having started without an experienced quarterback and with freshmen in several key slots.

A&T's offense did jell at mid-season and the Aggies have a capable backfield in quarterback Merl Code, halfbacks Willie

See GAME 2A

R. C. Foreman Named Chairman Durham Christmas Seal Drive

R. C. Foreman, retired Associate Controller of N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Company is serving as Chairman of the current Christmas Seal Sale Campaign, according to announcement made this week by E. J. Agsten, President of the Durham County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Foreman has been connected with the Association for a number of years as a member of the local board and a member of a regional Patients Service Committee. He is also serving on a state wide basis as a board member and a member of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association, Inc.

The beginning date of the campaign was set as November 14 to raise at least $17,000 for next year's projects relating to tuberculosis and respiratory disease research and care.

FOREMAN

A few days ago 14,000 envelopes containing Christmas Seals were mailed to residents throughout the

See FOREMAN 2A

WINS BY NARROW MARGIN (Cleveland, Ohio) — Democratic Carl Stokes, won election in a mayor's contest to govern the city of Cleveland by a narrow margin over Republican Seth Taft. With Stokes is his wife, Shirley, as they take the cheers of the crowd. (UPI Telephoto)

PNBC To Meet At Mt. Vernon Nov. 28-30

Gethsemane Baptist Church to Observe Women's Day Sunday

The Gethsemane Baptist Church, 906 South Roxboro St., will celebrate its Women's Day Service Sunday, November 26, at 11:00 a.m. with Mrs. V. E. Brown the pastor's wife as guest speaker.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Fayetteville State College, holds the master's degree from North Carolina College and has done further study at Columbia University. She is presently employed as an instructor in the Durham City School System.

In addition to her work as a teacher, Mrs. Brown is active with her husband in the pastorate of Gethsemane and the mother of three daughters and one son.

All other activities, including the choir, will be carried out by the women for the entire day.

MRS. BROWN

BAPTIST SET FOR 10-STATE PASTORS MEET

President Charles A. Cherry has issued a call to pastors in 10 States comprising the Southern Regional Convention, a unit of the Progressive National Baptist Convention, Inc., to meet at Mount Vernon Baptist Church, 1000 Roxboro St., Durham, November 28-30, with Dr. E. T. Browne, host pastor.

This session will highlight the theme: "Forward With God," and will feature speakers from Ala., Fla., Ga., Kentucky, N. C., S. C., and Tennessee. The closing sermon on Thursday evening will be delivered by Dr. Gardner C. Taylor, President of the Progressive National Baptist Convention.

Messengers attending the Convention will pay tribute to Mrs. Laura B. Conner, first President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Southern Regional Convention who will join the Southern Women in this

See MEET 2A

Former Senator Of S. Africa to Speak at Duke

A former senator in the South African Parliament who now is teaching in a predominantly-Negro university in the U. S. is scheduled to speak here Tuesday, Nov. 21.

The apartheid policy of South Africa which has created two societies divided by color will be the subject of a speech by Leslie Rubin, professor of comparative government at Howard University.

Rubin will be heard at 10 a.m. in the courtroom of the Law School at Duke University. The public will be admitted. Rubin's address will be on "The Anatomy of a Contemporary Police State: Law and Race in South Africa."

Rubin served in the South African senate from 1954 until 1960 during which time he was national vice president of the Liberal Party. He also served on the executive committee for the South African Institute on race relations and has testified before committee of the United Nations and the U. S. House of Representatives.

In 1960, Rubin moved to Ghana and a year later joined the law faculty at The Queen's University of Belfast, England. He has been at Howard University since 1962.

Rubin is the author of several books on apartheid and African law. He is writing a book on apartheid and "the politics of dehumanization in Ghana."

The major cause of death and destruction on U. S. highways, says Travelers Ins. Co. is driver error and lack of judgment

VICTORY SMILE — (Gary, Indiana) — Richard G. Hatcher flashes a victory smile after being elected Mayor of Gary, Indiana November 7. Hatcher, an attorney won over white businessman Joseph Radigan who ran on the Republican ticket. (UPI Telephoto)

L. T. Wilson Construction Co. Low Bidder NCC Science Bldg.

L. T. Wilson Construction Company of Durham was the apparent low bidder for the general construction contract for North Carolina College's new chemistry building when bids were opened Tuesday afternoon at the college.

The Durham firm's bid of $379,886 and sub-contractor's low bids totaled $714,614.

Low bidders for the sub-contracts were as follows:

Electrical, Finch Electric Company, Raleigh, $52,888; heating and air-conditioning, Alliance Plumbing and Heating Company, $46,175; laboratory equipment, Southern Desk Company, Hickory, $95,900; elevator, Otis Elevator, $3,965.

Other general contract bidder

Officials Confer On Carolina Riot

WINSTON-SALEM (UPI) — Officials from the city of Columbia, S. C., and the state met with city officials here recently for a first-hand look at this tobacco city's recent racial violence.