

SENIOR CITIZENS AT ST. TITUS CELEBRATE MAY-JUNE BIRTHDAYS

May having been Senior Citizens Month with many other activities, Senior Citizens at St. Titus' celebrated last week a May-June Birthday Party. Honorees were: May — Mesdames Geneva Burke, Hattie Parrish (out of town), Julia Wheeler and C. O. Zimmerman; and June — Mesdames Hallie Baines (out of town), Lillian Buchanan, Effie Cotton, Mamie Dawson, Sadie Postles, Addie Williams, and E. J. Smalls of Charlotte (honorary member).

Lace tablecloth, candles, and flowers and gay birthday party plates made a pretty table to be laden by the in-town honorees with a variety of cakes, prettily decorated a variety of sandwiches; fruit punch, candy and nuts. After formal opening and "Happy Birthday to You" the table claimed attention.

While everyone was enjoying the delicacies, Mrs. Williams read "One Solitary Life," covering and thoughtful for these times; and Mrs. Newby read "Seven Times One," a delightfully refreshing poem reminiscent of earlier birthdays. Exchanges of reminiscences and other cheerful chatter filled the rest of the hour.

When the gifts and greetings galore had been distributed, the following happy persons said their goodbyes: Miss Iola Allen, Mesdames Geneva Burke, Lillian Burton, Effie Cotton, Mamie Dawson, Bessie Doby, Florry Goodloe, Julia Harris, Mary Newby, Sadie Postles, Willie Mae Richmond, Alice Tilley, Zora Walker and Addie Williams.

President's Council of St. Mark AMEZ Church Sponsors Popularity Contest

The President's Council, of St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Church presented its Annual Program Sunday, evening, June 23, at 7:30.

The project for the year was a "Popularity Contest" among the presidents, with the proceeds to be used to re-decorate the Ladies Lounge of the church. John H. McNeill, Sr., President of the I. H. Marsh Clubs, was the winner.

The highlight of the program was honoring Mrs. Minnie Alston, President of Stewardship Board No. 3, who has served in the position for thirty-one (31) years. "Miss Minnie," as she affectionately called by Zionites and friends, has given loyal, unselfish and untiring service to the church and her community. She is a humble, dedicated Christian whose everyday living evidences Christ's indwelling spirit. She was presented a beautiful dress, during the program.

The officers of the President's Council are: L. A. McNeill, President; Mrs. Hazel M. Harvey, Vice-President; Mrs. Lula McNair, Secretary; Mrs. Hazel M. Harvey, Vice-President; Mrs. Lula McNair, Secretary; Mrs. Josephine T. DeNard, Assistant Secretary; John H. McNeill, Treasurer, and Mrs. Ethel M. Howie, Adult Director, originator of the project for this year.

First Baptist Church To Observe "Day Of Missions"

CHAPEL HILL — The First Baptist Church will observe a special "Day of Missions" Sunday, June 30, at 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Alice Somerville of Washington, D. C. will be the guest speaker for both services. Mrs. Somerville is the wife of Dr. W. G. Somerville, Executive Secretary of the Lott Carey Foreign Missionary Convention of the United States of America. She has traveled in Haiti, Africa and India.

The day will place emphasis on "The Mission of the Church in Today's World." A special invitation is extended to the public to attend these services.

HOT WEATHER COMFORT

During these hot and humid days our air conditioned chapel is always cool and comfortable. In this, as in all other things, we feature the most modern equipment the market has to offer. We are truly proud of our facilities for rendering the best of service to the people of this community and welcome your inspection whenever you are in our neighborhood.
