$1,000 Paid to Lawyer For Defense Effort

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — bama, NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) cooperating attorney Oscar W. Adams, Jr. of this city disclosed this week that he was awarded $1,000 by a U. S. District Court in Alabama for successfully pleading a civil case involving three Negroes who were refused entrance to an Alabama summer resort.
The $1,000 fee is thought to be the largest amount ever awarded for a case based on the 1964 Civil Rights Act.
LDF attorneys say that the unusual fee means that more persons who refuse others access to public facilities because of race will be brought to trial and, when found guilty, will be strapped with higher legal fees.
Plaintiffs in the case were Dr. Neil Friedman, and Annette and Paulette Hughes, who sued through their father, McKinley Hughes.

Links Open Annual Session With New Innovations Pledge

OAKLAND, Calif. — National President, Vivian Beamon, of Cincinnati, Ohio, opened the Sixteenth General Assembly of National Links, Inc., meeting in Oakland-Berkeley, California, June 25 through July 1, with the challenge that Links develop new innovations in an era of dynamic dimensions. The compelling imperatives relating to the American Negro were the overriding concern of the Sixteenth General Assembly.
The keynote address by Link Julia Smith, President of the Oakland Bay Area Chapter, gave the clarion call to action through a diagnosis of the words "innovation," "dynamic" and "dimensions," and equating them with "restlessness," "boldness," "a sense of reaching out" and "searching ourselves."
Links were urged into the area of civil rights where the battle is thickest and no retreat until it is won. Human rights, social and racial justice, the problems of ghetto life, unemployment among minority groups, crime prevention as it relates to youth, were the facets of a five-day examination. Inspired by the 1968 theme, "Links Inn—An Era of Dynamic Dimensions," the delegates evoked new ideas and techniques for making the organization more meaningful in American life.

National President Beamon reported the culmination of Links' past major contribution of $75,000 to the Educational and Legal Defense Fund of the NAACP in these words: "In view of the tremendous work which the underprivileged citizens of America through the courts of this land, Links viewed the $75,000 as a 'stride toward freedom.'"
Highlight of the Assembly's presentations in terms of Links' national commitment was portrayed through the pragmatic and factual address of Whitney M. Young, Executive Director of the National Urban League, who addressed the Freedom Luncheon. The Urban League Director reminded middle class Negroes that they can no longer be separated from the problems, frustrations and anxieties of the disinherited people of America

CR Community Groups Defy KUAC Attempts See Records

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Civil rights and community groups will defy any attempt by the Kentucky Un-American Committee (KUAC) to see their records.
The West End Community Council (WECC) voted unanimously not to cooperate with any KUAC investigation pending the outcome of a lawsuit testing the validity of the committee.
The same stand was taken by the Black Unity League of Kentucky (BULK), the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF), and the White Emergency Support Team (WEST).
All of these groups were named as targets for investigation by State's Attorney Edwin A. Schroering. He did this after the county grand jury asked KUAC to investigate an uprising in Louisville's black community in the last week of May.

KUAC will meet in Frankfort on July 12 to begin an inquiry into "violence, riots, civil disorders, and disruptions of domestic tranquility in the Commonwealth of Kentucky."
The groups under attack have banded together in an organization called Kentuckians Against KUAC, pronounced Quack by many people throughout the state.
They charge that KUAC See COMMUNITY page 8A

Many of our employees of several years tenure have worked without a yearly vacation. Our publisher has been unable to take any time off for practically forty-five years. This is inhumane.
