The Gethsemane Baptist Church Vacation Bible School closed out two-weeks of activity last Sunday night at 7:00 p.m. with a program by the children and a commencement address by the pastor. Refreshments were served in the basement of the church for all persons. During last week studies, a film was shown to the classes by Edward Allen of the Durham Police Department. The Vacation Bible School was conducted for two weeks with an average of about one hundred in attendance each day. (Photo by Purefoy)

(Continued from page 5A) ments furnished by the June people, and of the special treat of a chocolate layer cake with white filling and icing made and brought by Mrs. Lola Clark, and (best of all) sunshine of happy faces.

With "Happy Birthday to You," and making wishes and blowing out candles and laughing and chatting and singing and distributing gifts and greetings, the party progressed happily past the usual closing hour.

Present to felicitate the June people were:

Miss Lola Allen, Mesdames Alice Brame, Lola Clark, Annie Cozart, Bessie Doby, Florence Goodloe, Julia Harris, Sallie Harris, Wilma Milum, Janie Moore, Della Patterson, Willie Mae Richmond, Mittie Tatum Smith, Gladys Washington, and Julia Wheeler; also Willie Cozart, Charles Harris, John Smith and Walter Wheeler.

Senior Citizens worshipped corporately at St. Titus' the following Sunday. A large group were able to attend the service.

The Veterans Administration has issued a reminder that war widows are eligible for education and home-loan benefits similar to those provided in the G.I. Bill. The law which went into effect December 1, 1968, states that wives of permanently and totally disabled veterans are also eligible for education benefits.
