

Duke Ellington Receives HI's Highest Non-Academic Award

HAMPTON INSTL., Hampton, Virginia — Duke Ellington was presented Hampton Institute's Centennial Medallion before more than 13,500 fans on Friday night, June 27 in Armstrong Stadium at the Second Annual Hampton Jazz Festival. Ellington was the 68th national and international figure to receive HI's highest non-academic award.

In presenting the award to the Duke, Dr. Jerome H. Holland, president of HI, cited Ellington as "one of the real creative artists of the world." He also praised him for his contribution to jazz which has its roots in Negro life.

The Duke was recently presented the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest citation award at a White House 70th birthday celebration for him. He has also received similar citations from many foreign countries.

Fans at the second night of the Hampton Jazz Festival were thrilled by the Duke and his band playing such favorites as "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "Do Nothing Till You Hear From Me," "Sophisticated Lady," "Satin Doll" and other equally well known Ellington hits.

Appearing with the Ellington band were such great names in music as Johnny Hodges, Harry Carney, Paul Gonslaves and Cat Anderson.

Others appearing on the Friday night program included

Joe Louis Leaves New York Hospital

NEW YORK — Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis was released from Beekman Downtown Hospital late Friday, one day after a physical collapse.

Miss Joan Reed, a spokesman for the hospital, said "Mr. Louis signed himself out of the hospital at 7 p.m."

Continues Upward Says FBI Serious Crimes in United States

WASHINGTON, D. C. — According to figures made available through the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports and released by Attorney General John N. Mitchell, serious crime in the United States continued its upward trend recording a 10 percent rise nationally for the first three months of 1969 when compared to the same period in 1968.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover noted that each crime classification used in the national Crime Index showed increases. Crimes of violence as a group recorded a 15 percent increase with murder up 7 percent, forcible rape 12 percent, aggravated assault 8 percent, and robbery 22 percent. Property crimes as a group climbed 9 percent with burglary up 4 percent, larceny $50 and over Bullock, Clara Perkins and Ella Jackson were the guests.

Mrs. Edward thanked the hostess for an enjoyable evening.

In value 17 percent, and auto theft 11 percent.

According to the FBI Director, the large cities with over 100,000 inhabitants experienced an average increase of 10 percent, suburban areas 11 percent, and rural areas 7 percent. When viewed by geographic regions, the Northeastern States reported a 12 percent rise, the North Central States were up 10 percent, and the Southern and Western States each registered a 9 percent increase.

The FBI Director called particular attention to the continued sharp increases in the crimes of violence. He pointed out the sharp increases in robbery, which continues to increase at a more rapid pace than the other Crime Index offenses. Nationwide, according to Mr. Hoover, armed robbery where any weapon was used rose 27 percent and aggravated assault with a firearm increased 10 percent during the first quarter of 1969 over the same period in 1968.

Singleton Signs First Female Negro Country-Western Artist

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — The Shelby Singleton Corporation announces the signing of 22-year-old Linda Martell, as the first female Negro country-western artist with one of their record divisions, Plantation, it was announced by President S. S. Singleton, Jr.

Within 72-hours of the signing with Plantation Records, Miss Martell's initial single on the label, "Color Him Father," was waxed for release. Around the clock efforts to rush the single out were personally directed by Shelby S. Singleton, Jr.

DO

...go in for some old-fashioned bargain hunting! Comparison-shop your usual markets and department stores. Look for "in-season" meats, fruits, vegetables. Set a monthly food budget and STICK to it. How? Buy staples first and when you get down to the end, it's budget meals instead of filet mignon to finish out the week. Do the same thing with family trips. Try the "off-season" vacation—the cheaper-rate charter-bus or charter-plane deal you can swing if you get a whole group involved and interested.

DON'T

...give in to impulse buying for things you don't really need (and will actively hate later). When it comes to installment buying, don't sign your name before you know, to the last penny, what interest and carrying charges are. And don't neglect the long-range planning for big expenses: medical, education, home-buying, ultimate retirement. Every area that you don't know about has a qualified expert who can help. Take for instance, the familiar figure of the Travelers man in your community. He's now a family financial planner with top expertise! And a lot of the answers that can help Mother take inflation's temperature and begin to bring its fever down.
