

Periodical Dept
Duke Univ. Library
Durham, N. C.

Over 1500 In Semifinals Scholarship Achievement Program

Durham Father And Daughter Sentenced For Tax Fraud

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDLED

VOLUME 48 — No. 40

DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1969

PRICE: 20 Cents

NAACP Lawyers Defend 24 In Criminal Conspiracy Trial

14 Young Men, 10 Women are Under Sentence

LOS ANGELES — The 24 young men and women charged with criminal conspiracy in connection with a disturbance on the campus of the San Fernando Valley State College in California are being defended in court by lawyers retained by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The Los Angeles law firm of Miller and Miller was retained by the NAACP to defend the accused 14 young men and 10 young women now on trial here before Superior Court Judge Mark Brandler. The young people, 22 Negroes, one Mexican-American and one Asian, were indicted on 75 counts for their alleged role in a disturbance on the college campus last November. A total of 1,730 felonies, some sort of record in cases of this kind, are listed in the indictment.

Through Nathaniel Colley of Sacramento, chairman of the Association's West Coast Regional legal committee, the students appealed to the NAACP for legal assistance.

In response to this request, the Los Angeles firm, consisting of Halvor Thomas Miller, Jr., Morgan Moten and Loren Miller, Jr., son of the late Judge Miller, who has long been a leading NAACP attorney, was retained.

"Our entry into this case," NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins said, "is strictly in line with NAACP tradition and practice. For 60 years we

(See TRIAL 2A)

CONGRATULATIONS ARE IN ORDER — These are persons who took part in the September meeting of the Durham Branch, NAACP, Sunday Sept. 28, at Community Baptist Church. Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan Kooztz, Assistant Secretary, United States Department of Labor, center, is being congratulated by, Ir. Rev. E. T. Thompson, who led the devotions; Mrs. Ruth Jones, president, NCTA, who presented Mrs. Kooztz to a large appreciative audience; Dr. C. E. Boulware, city councilman, who presided over the meeting and Alexander Barnes, president of the Branch. Mrs. Kooztz presented a new image of productive education which she said was being made possible by the federal government.

Charlotte Young Woman Winner U.S. Treasury Superior Performance Award

CHARLOTTE — Mrs. Stella Morris Matthews, a 20 year-old junior at Johnson C. Smith University, has received a Superior Performance Award from the United States Treasury Department.

The award, which included a Certificate of Appreciation and a $50 cash prize, was presented by E. Y. Poole of Greensboro, chief of the Audit Division of Internal Revenue Service for the Southeastern Region, "In recognition and appreciation for noteworthy contribution to the effective and efficient operation of the Treasury Department."

Mrs. Matthews, a native of Lillington, has been employed at the Charlotte Field Branch of the Internal Revenue Service since November 1968.

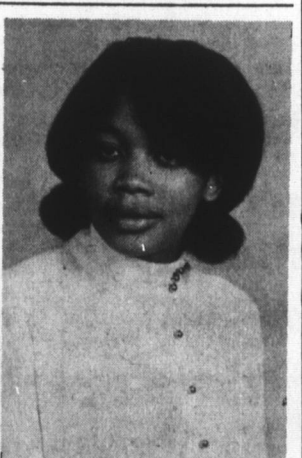

MRS. MATTHEWS She describes her position as "a secretary-aide and 'Girl Friday' ". She got the job through the Placement Office at Smith.

The performance award is given annually to outstanding employees as an incentive to inspire other employees.

ELLANOS ROBERTS

DELOIS LYONS

AKA Sorority Presents Awards

The Alpha Zeta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority recently awarded four-year scholarships to Misses Effie Delois Lyons and Ellanose Roberts, both freshmen at North Carolina Central University. The recipients were chosen on the basis of scholarships, need, and character.

Miss Lyons, a 1969 honor graduate of Merrick-Moore High School, was a member of the Future Homemakers of America and the National Honor Society. Miss Roberts, a 1969 honor graduate of Hillside High School, was president of the Spanish Club and held membership in the Dramatics Club and the National Honor Society. Both young women were active participants in other school affairs and in church organizations.

Scholarship awards are a priority program implemented by Alpha Zeta Omega Sorors (See AWARDS 2A)

Black History Meet Promises To Be Greatest

BIRMINGHAM — Ten government officials and fifty-seven persons representing fifty-three universities will converge on Birmingham in one of the greatest annual meetings on Negro History in America on October 9 thru 12. Hotel Tutwiler will be the scene of this mammoth conference on Black History which will include topics from art and Abraham Lincoln to labor, education and Africans.

Never before has so many educators in the United States, representing both black and white universities, shown such tremendous interest in bringing to light unknown facts and figures on the accomplishments and achievements of Black people.

A total of sixty sessions will be held in the five meeting rooms of the Hotel Tutwiler beginning on the morning of October 9 and ending on the 12. According to Dr. Charles H. Wesley, executive director of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History and retired president of Central State College, "We now feel that the majority of Americans are turning to the profound significance of Negro history in America. Major publishers are beginning to recognize the validity of using Black history and the extensive profits of publishing books about it."

When contacted, Dr. Charles A. Brown, Principal of Brighton High School, Local Coordinator of the Convention and local Chapter president said that his committee has accomplished an extraordinary amount of work in the interest of making this the most exciting and interesting Convention to date.

Dr. J. Rupert Picott, former president of Virginia Teachers Association and presently an executive with the National Education Association, is president of ASNHLH.

Poisonous snakes found in Alabama are the coral, water moccasin or cottonmouth, and rattlesnakes.

District Court Convicts Two For Violation

GREENSBORO — A father and daughter were sentenced in the Middle District court at Durham last week for federal income tax fraud.

William A. Daye and Rebecca Daye Wooten were found guilty of aiding and assisting other individuals in the filing of fraudulent income tax returns for the years 1964 and 1965.

William Daye, on probation from a previous conviction in 1964, was found guilty of parole violation on three charges of aiding and assisting others in filing fraudulent returns. He was given an active sentence of one year and a day.

Rebecca Daye Wooten his daughter, was found guilty on five combined counts of aiding and assisting others to file fraudulent tax returns. She received a four-month active sentence and was placed on probation for five years under court order to prepare no federal or state tax returns for others during the period of probation.

They both resided at 106 East Chestnut Street in Durham.

South Carolina Deplores Testimony Of J. B. Culbertson

COLUMBIA, S. C. — Spokesmen for the South Carolina Conference of NAACP Branches have repudiated statements made by John Bolt Culbertson in support of the nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth, Jr., to the Supreme Court. Culbertson, a white Greenville lawyer and president of the Greenville County Bar Association, characterized himself before the Senate Judiciary Committee as an NAACP "sympathizer."

The repudiation, contained in a telegram signed by Rev. A. W. Holman and Isaac W. Williams, NAACP state president and field director, respectively, stated that "the endorsement reported by you (Mr. Culbertson) as made by W. T. Smith, president of the Greenville Branch of the NAACP, has been publicly denied by the accused and discarded by NAACP's constituency as a malicious affront."

Further, the NAACP refutation "deplores and repudiates the statements . . . as erroneous, unfounded, void of facts (See DEPLORES 2A)

1969 SCHOLARSHIP WINNER — Elks Grand Exalted Ruler Hobson Reynolds (second from left), and Grand Commissioner of Education George W. Lee (right), join Eugene McCullars of Coca-Cola USA in presenting

Isiah White with the second annual Elks-Coca-Cola USA scholarship. White, a resident of South Bend, Indiana, visited the recent Elks Convention as a guest of Coca-Cola USA, A Division of The Coca-Cola Company. He plans to study engineering at Drexel Institute and is one of sixteen Black students enrolling in colleges this fall on scholarships provided by Coca-Cola USA.

President Smith Announces Winners of NMSC Scholarship

Names of over 1,500 Semifinalists in the sixth National Achievement Scholarship Program for outstanding Negro students were announced this week by Edward C. Smith, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NM-SC). Some 325 of the students will win Achievement Scholarships next spring.

About 100 of the Achievement Scholarships will be four-year renewable awards ranging in value from $250 per year to $1,500 per year ($1,000 to $6,000 over the four years). The exact amounts depend on the individual need of the winners. These four-year awards are sponsored mainly by corporations and corporate foundations. Over 200 of the awards will be National Achievement $1000 Scholarships that provide a single payment of $1,000 to the winner when he enrolls in college.

The Achievement Semifinalists were selected from 35,000 Negro participants from more than 4,500 schools nationwide. Among students requesting Achievement Program consideration, the Semifinalists were the highest scorers in their geographic regions on the Na-

New Bethel Bapt. Church Pastor To Celebrate Anniversary Sun.

New Bethel Baptist Church here announces plans for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of its minister, the Rev. Dr. Lowery Wilson Reid, Sunday October 5. Dr. Reid first began his present pastorate on the First Sunday in October, 1945, at New Bethel.

Dr. C. E. Bouleware, Durham City Councilman and lay-leader of Covenant Presbyterian Church, will be the guest speaker at the 11 o'clock service and music will be furnished by the senior and gospel choirs of New Bethel.

The afternoon session will begin at 3 o'clock and Bishop F. Yelverton, pastor of Mount Calvary Holiness Church here, will deliver the anniversary message. Music for the program will feature Mount Calvary's choir and its congregation. Climaxing the celebration will be the 6 p.m. service with

REV. REID the message delivered by Rev. C. L. Thompson, pastor of Children's Chapel of Graham. Rev. Thompson is an alumnus of Union Christian Bible Institute at Durham. Music will be furnished by the male choruses (See PASTOR page 2A)

Charlotte Hosts 99th Annual Masonic Grand Lodge Meet

CHARLOTTE — Featured speaker for the 99th annual communication of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, North Carolina, when it convenes in Charlotte, October 6-8, will be Dr. Thomas Kilgore, Jr., pastor of Second Baptist Church, Los Angeles, California, and recently elected president of the American Baptist Convention (first Negro to serve as top executive of this predominantly white national organization). A native of Woodruff, S. C., and for many years, a leader in educational and religious work in North Carolina, Dr. Kilgore is held in high esteem by his many acquaintances in this area. He is especially remembered for his outstanding leadership as executive secretary of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, which position he held, 1945-1947.

With special emphasis on charity, education, brotherhood, and first-class citizenship, the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Prince Hall Masons, with a total membership of over 30,000, is geared to a broad program of human betterment and social progress - in the areas of youth guidance, job opportunities, housing, voter registration, and economics.

BROWN

The distinguished leader of this historic fraternal organization now serving his ninth year as top executive - is Grand Master Clark S. Brown, prominent business and civic leader of Winston-Salem.

Other grand officers include: Bishop H. B. Shaw, Wilmington, deputy grand master; W. A. Clement, Durham, and Dr. C. W. Lawrence,

Greensboro, special deputies; Clarence Winchester, Greensboro, secretary; Dr. H. N. Dowdy, Washington, treasurer; Milton Fitch, Wilson, senior warden; James French, Lumberton, junior warden; Dr. R. Irving Boone, Elizabeth City, director of public relations and editor of The Masonic Journal; Dr. G. W. Allen, Fayetteville, senior deacon; G. W. Little, Winston-Salem, junior deacon; Reverend N. K. Dunn, Beaufort, junior steward; Dr. A. C. Cook, Asheville, master of ceremonies, W. A. Jones, Winston-Salem, attorney; Reverend John A. Mebane, Tarboro, orator; Floyd E. Spellman, Elizabeth City, lecturer; H. D. Speight, Rocky Mount, asst. lecturer; Reverend J. W. Wilkins, Washington, sword bearer; E. J. Elliott, Fayetteville, standard bearer; S. F. Harrison, Winston-Salem, Pursuivant; R. P. Person, Winston-Salem, marshal; James E. Garfield, Greensboro, deputy secretary; and there are the following district deputies:

James L. Evans, Wilmington; John Henry Cannady, Richlands; H. V. Brown, Goldsboro, Rev. R. A. Morris, Snow Hill, Fred Simons, Swan Quat-

ers; James E. White, Elizabeth City; Matthew Jarmond, Winston, Frank Cobb, Rocky Mount; G. W. Bryant, Selma; O. L. Cunningham, Virginia, Lee W. Smith, Durham; D. W. Massey, Winston-Salem; Aaron Lighter, High Point; W. T. Horton, Sanford; B. A. McGeachy, Fayetteville, Hon. H. Carson, Morganton; Bismark Williams, Asheville; Thebaud Jeffers, Gastonia; James A. Shands, Charlotte; T. L. Gerals, Lumberton; J. R. Brewington; St. Pauls; R. J. Harris, Stateville.

Saint Paul's College Gets $10,000 Gift

LAWRENCEVILLE, Va. — A $10,000 unrestricted gift has been received by Saint Paul's College here from Reynolds Metals Co., Richmond, it was announced by President Earl H. McClenney this week. The check was presented by Paul Stuber, a Reynolds' executive. The presentation was made to a group of Saint Paul's trustees and administrators.