

Eagles Trip Virginia St. 20-9

NCCU Moves into First Place With Sat.'s Win Over Trojans

North Carolina Central University's Julian Martin continued to lead the Eagles in scoring, with two touchdown passes from Herman Mathews in Saturday's 20-9 victory over Virginia State.

The Eagles, still undefeated after three tough CIAA conference games, outtrashed and outpassed the Trojans, but Coach George Quiett gave the lion's share of the credit to an outstanding defense.

Defense captain Frank Bullock and defensive tackle Sam Singletary got plaudits from their coach in a post-game conference. After viewing the game films, Quiett had more names to praise.

"Most of the credit for our pass defense goes to Pete Quinn and Charles Bellinger our outstanding corner backs. They held Virginia State to two pass receptions in fourteen attempts," Quiett said. He also added linebacker Robert Holloway to the list of defensive stars.

For the offense, Quiett singled out Martin as a star. He called the New Bern native's pass receptions spectacular.

"And the films showed that Doug Wilkerson, our All-American tackle, was moving their star defensive tackle all over the field," Quiett said. Playing left tackle on the Trojan defensive team, opposite Wilkerson at right, was James Mitchell, who was listed last year on the Pittsburgh Courier's All-American roster.

The game was marred by penalties. NCCU lost 85 yards to officials, Virginia State 72. The Trojans scored first, catching quarterback Herman Mathews in the Eagle end zone for a safety.

NCCU scored next on a 27-yard field goal. Then Virginia State's Harrison Wallace blocked a punt and the Trojans' Andrew Jones recovered on the four. On the second down, quarterback Lawrence Suggs rolled around right end for the score. William Chambers added a point with his kick, and the Trojans led 9-3.

Behind at the half for the first time this season, the Eagles took the kick-off and marched for 75 yards in 12 plays. A nine-yard pass from Mathews to Martin made the score 9 up. Eagleson's kick gave the Eagles the lead.

Sam Singletary blocked a punt by William Chambers to give NCCU possession on the 15-yard line when Jerome Gantt recovered the ball. Mathews hit Martin on the first play from scrimmage for the touchdown.

Eagleson kicked for the PAT in the fourth quarter, then connected for another field goal for the final score of the game.

Virginia State Col. Set for Homecoming October 30-Nov. 1

PETERSBURG — Homecoming Day festivities are expected to attract several thousand alumni and friends to the Virginia State College campus for three days, October 30 and 31 and November 1.

According to an announcement from B. F. Dabney, Director of Development and Public Affairs at the college, scheduled activities will get underway on Thursday, October 30 when Miss Virginia State College will be crowned "Queen of the Campus" for school year 1969 at 8 P.M. in Virginia Hall auditorium.

Festivities continue on Friday, October 31 when the Homecoming Jazz Concert, featuring Clark Terry (Jazz), Peaches and Herb (Rock), and Muddy Water (Blues), will take place in the New Daniel Hall gym at 8 P.M. Special tickets will be required to attend this musical attraction.

The Dawn Dance, always a special highlight of homecoming day activities, will be held on campus in the early morning hours of Saturday, November 1.

Also on Saturday, plans are being made on the campus for a parade through the streets of the city of Petersburg. The VSC marching band, floats from many of the campus male and female organizations, and members of the First ROTC Brigade, commanded by Cadet Lt. Colonel Sterling Weaver of Emporia, Virginia, will be the featured attractions in the line of march.

The annual meeting of the National Alumni Association of the college will follow at 10:45 A.M.
