"Tribute To The Clergy"

Because our contacts with the clergymen of our community are frequent and varied, we must admit that we have sometimes been guilty of taking their selfless devotion for granted. May we at the Scarborough and Hargett Funeral Home at this time express our appreciation for the many gracious services they render without complaint and often with little or no reward.

Homecoming to be Observed at West Durham Baptist Sunday

The West Durham Baptist Church will observe its Annual Homecoming, Sunday, October 26, at the 11:00 a.m. service. The speaker will be the Rev. Charles H. Smith, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Huntington, West Virginia. The Rev. Mr. Smith is the son of Doctor Thomas H. Smith and the late Mrs. Helen Smith of Lexington, Kentucky.

The speaker grew up in the city of Lexington where he received his early public school training. His education was continued at Virginia Union University in Richmond, Virginia where he earned the B.A. and B.D. degrees. He has done advanced studying in the field of public health and administration in Pennsylvania. Further work has been done in the area of Clinical Psychology at the University of Kentucky. As a student, Rev. Smith traveled and studied throughout Europe in contemporary culture. Upon returning from Europe, he traveled through America relating his experiences.

He is married to the former, Miss Lillie Jones Hamilton of Richmond, Virginia. They have three daughters: Jacqueline, 11, Debbie 9, and Stephanie 5. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Senior Choir directed by P. L. Perkins, Jr. and Miss Jennifer Love, organist.

The Homecoming Committee consists of Mrs. Josie Powell, Chairman; John Plummer, Sr., James Mayo, Mrs. Dorothy Starnes, Mrs. Gertrude McBroom, Joshua Richardson, Mrs. Jessie Richardson, Mrs. Daisy Gunn, Mrs. Sallie Graham, Mrs. Margaret Hedgepeth, and Mrs. Margaret Neely.

Here's still another way to keep small bathers entertained during their daily scrub-down: drop a handful of colorful corks into the bathtub. Children love to watch them bob around among the soapsuds.
