Mrs. Ray, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister, was born August 26, 1898 in Wake County. She departed this life Tuesday, November 18, at Lincoln Hospital, Durham.

She was educated in the Wake County public schools, and furthered her training at Shaw University. For many years, she was a school teacher. The deceased was a member

Shaw University Expresses Concern for Striking Workers

By MILTON JORDAN
Times Staff Writer

RALEIGH — Shaw University in Raleigh became the second Black educational institution in the area to publicly express concern for the striking cafeteria workers in Chapel Hill. The position of the Shaw personnel was stated in form of a resolution passed at a regular staff meeting. An open letter to Chancellor J. Carlyle Sitterson was prepared by a committee appointed by President King V. Cheek to implement the faculty-staff of White Rock Baptist Church where she served as follows: Assistant Sunday School Superintendent, J. G. Mason District, Philaetha Sunday School Class, Gospel Choir, Mission Circle, Deaconess Board.

Survivors include her husband, Burnice E. Ray; one son, Burnus L. Ray; three grandchildren, Burnes, Marla and Sharon Ray; five brothers, Paul McAllister, of Hillsborough; Silas McAllister, of Trenton, N. J.; Ralph, Harold and Larrie McAllister, all of New York; several other relatives.

First Baptist To Hold Appreciation Service for Pastor

CHAPEL HILL — The First Baptist Church, on the corner of North Roberson and W. Rosemary Streets will sponsor a special appreciation service for its minister, Dr. J. R. Manley, Sunday, December 14, at 7:30 P.M.

Dr. W. T. Bigelow, minister of the Greater St. Paul Baptist Church, Durham, will bring the message. Accompanying Dr. Bigelow will be three choirs of Greater St. Paul and members of his congregation. A special feature on the program will be the singing of two of Dr. Manley's favorite selections by the combined choirs of First Baptist and special remarks will be brought by representatives of the church.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the service. The public is cordially invited to attend this service. Any expression or greeting should be sent to Willis Barbee, Jones Ferry Road, Carrboro, Chairman of the Appreciation Committee.

"I WILL NOT LEAVE YOU COMFORTLESS"
—John 14:18

THINK back. Who was there in your empty hours of bereavement? Family? Friends, your clergyman and your funeral director, unobtrusively there to handle the hundreds of little details, to answer your questions, to conduct the service with dignity and understanding. He was there, a reassuring figure in a lonely hour.
