AMEZ Church Names Ten To Unity Board

CHICAGO, Ill. — In keeping with the plan of organization on Consultation On Church Union (COCU), Bishop W. J. Walls, leader of the A.M.E. Zion delegation, announced that 10 persons had been named to represent the denomination, when the 9 churches to merge into one body, meets in St. Louis, Mo., March 9-13.
 The following persons were named: Dr. W. C. Ardrey, Detroit, Mich.; Dr. E. Warner Brice, Washington, D. C.; Bishop C. H. Foggie, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rev. George J. Hill, Goldsboro, Dr. J. C. Hoggard, New York; W. Mance Gilliam, Durham; Bishop R. J. Jones, Salisbury; Mrs. Willa M. Rice, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Dr. J. J. Satterwhite, Washington, D. C., and George Mason Miller, Chicago, Ill. Bishops Herbert B. Shaw, Wilmington, and Dr. E. Franklin Jackson, Washington, D. C. were named as alternates.
 Alexander Barnes and Rev. L. A. Miller, both of Durham, along with Dr. David Bradley, Bedford, Pa., Rev. E. B. Rochester, Burlington, N. J. and Mrs. Rice have been working with the Communications Committee for sometime and will be in attendance. Bishop C. Eubanks Tucker, Louisville will serve as chaplain for the representative of the 25 million protestant members that envisioned for the suggested Church of Christ Uniting.
 The nine denominations involved are the Episcopal, United Methodist, Christian (Disciples), United Presbyterian and Presbyterian (Southern) churches, the United Churches of Christ and three mainly Negro churches — the African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion and Christian Methodist Episcopal.
 The plan specifies that a Negro be named as the first presiding bishop of the new church and that the church specifically bar race discrimination in any form.
 The church would be committed to "struggle with racism, poverty, environment, war and the problems of the family of man, minister to the deep yearning of the human spirit for fullness in life and provide for the common use of the resources and gifts" of many Christian traditions. It would provide for strong lay influence in its councils.
 The 150-page plan of union, drawn up by a special drafting commission, said the aim was not just a "mechanical merger," but formation of a dynamic unifying body seeking the ultimate "unity of the whole church."
 The highest point in the West Indies is Mount Tina in the Dominican Republic.

"Tribute To The Clergy"
 Because our contacts with the clergymen of our community are frequent and varied, we must admit that we have sometimes been guilty of taking their selfless devotion for granted. May we at the Scarborough and Hargett Funeral Home at this time express our appreciation for the many gracious services they render with often without complaint and often with little or no reward.
