R. C. PRICE

R. C. Price of R. C. Price Realty Company invites you to come by or call him at his new location, 507 Linwood Avenue, across from Lincoln Hospital. The company was formally located at 1220 Fayetteville Street.

507 LINWOOD AVENUE

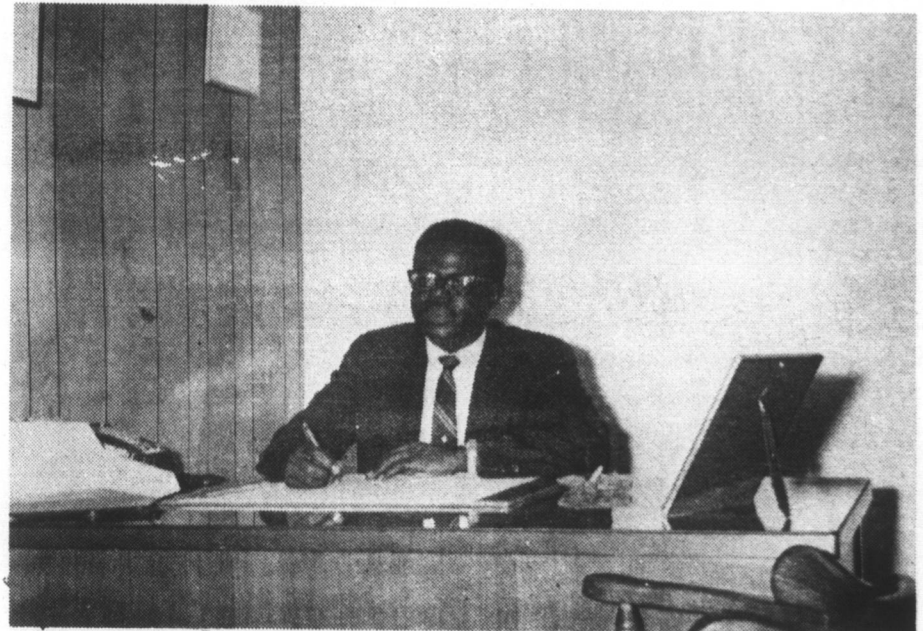

This newly remodeled office building is but another symbol of progress to upgrade businesses in the Durham Community. To R. C. Price it is another fulfillment of a dream of providing service in the community. Present tenants are: Dr. J. A. Jeffries, Optometrist; Roberts Alteration Shop, Welcome Aboard Vacation Center Travel Agency and two vacant office spaces.

R.C. PRICE REALTY MOVES INTO NEW OFFICE BUILDING

A general invitation has been extended all citizens of Durham to make themselves welcome, to the services offered by R. C. Price Realty. Price is a 1962 graduate of North Carolina Central University, and worked as a chemist with a local firm before entering the real estate business. He liked it, and is now solidifying his business in the community. He is also the first black real estate man ever to be accepted by the Durham Board of Realtors. He is also a member of North Carolina Association of Realtors, Durham Business and Professional Chain, Housing Committee of Durham, Human Relations Committee, Substaining member of Boy Scouts of America, a trustee of Covenant Presbyterian Church. Price, a native of Gainesville, Florida came to Durham in 1957 and is married to former Emily Watson and they have one son, Randell three years old.

His clients of - both races - generally look for what they want in the way of real estate rather than at the real estate agent himself. Service is the main thing.

OFFICE OF R. C. PRICE
