Lee and Davis "Peace Day" Speakers at 'Y'

Mayor Howard Lee and Reverend Grady Davis will be guest speakers at a Symposium: "Avenues to World Peace" Sunday, Sept. 20 at 4:30 p.m. at the Y.M.C.A., corner of Trinity and N. Duke Streets. The Symposium is being sponsored by the Baha'is of Durham in observance of World Peace Day, Sept. 20. The Baha'i speaker will be Mrs. Tereh Cowart Smith, an international Baha'i lecturer from Greensboro.

The public is encouraged to attend; no collections will be taken.

Followers of the Baha' Faith (pronounced "Bah-high") believe that world peace will be achieved when mankind unites in such a way that he regards the whole world as one country, and all men as members of one family. Political unity, Baha'is believe.

Surprise Party Given Pastor By Members

It is not unusual to have birthdays, but it is unusual to have two such nice surprise birthday parties. Such was the case with Rev. J. C. Cheek and his family pictured above.

The first of Rev. Cheek's surprises came on Saturday Sept. 12, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brandon, 2914 Cedarwood Drive. Mrs. Brandon very graciously served a delicious repast of steak, tossed salad, garlic bread, ice cream and cake. Enjoying this affair were Rev. and Mrs. Thomas, Mother Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Garrison and family of Graham.

Immediately following Sunday morning worship services he was again surprised with a buffet dinner in the fellowship hall. Mesdames Mable Caldwell and Francis Vinson jointly chaired this dinner with the entire church family participating. Seated at the table with Rev. and Mrs. Cheek this time were Mesdames Agnes Mary Mebane, aunts of Graham, along with mesdames Agnes Lea and J. Riley, friends of the family.

At the night service on Sunday, Rev. Cheek thanked the congregation for all the gifts and surprises tendered him.
