Today's Scene At Hillside

By MICHELLE DEJARMON

Congratulations to Mrs. Jeanne H. Lucas, Spanish teacher, at Hillside High school. Mrs. Lucas has been recognized as the most outstanding young teacher at Hillside. For those of us who know her we know that she makes her classes very interesting. Miss Ingrid Watson, a student at North Carolina Central University, majoring in Spanish, seemed to notice and observed these interesting qualities during her stay at HHS. Now that Miss Watson has to return to NCCU her students will miss her but she has learned as well as taught. Her students wish her good luck in all her endeavors.

This week we have a holiday on Wednesday, January 27. The reason is for the end of the semester. Most are glad because this is the end of exams, a day for rest, and marks the beginning of a new semester. A new chance is in store for some and for all that to to room 211 at one time of the day or another, they will be seeing a new face sitting at the desk. Mrs. Nancy Brannan, the English teacher that occupied that room is reluctantly leaving because of health reasons. Everyone will miss her, but not as much as her fourth hour class. It seems that if you have fifth hour lunch, the fourth hour is the hardest hour to get through. The time I am referring to is 11:45 -12:40. Many find that stomachs growl and eye lids get heavy. Some have noticed that tensions rise and some people are just not able to work with some people. Mrs. Brannan made a statement that the fourth hour class can be proud of. She said, "there is no tension in this class what so ever that I have been able to detect and I'm really going to miss it." Then she told Ronald Scarborough, Wayne McKinzie, and Curtis Brockington three of HHS great basketball stars that she would make a point to see them play a game. All in all none of us want to see her go and I think that Curtis Brockington put it well for everyone in her classes when he said, "I don't want no new teacher," but all of us also sided with Curtis Daye when he told her, "you can leave since it is for your health." We will be sorry to see her go, but all we can say is "Get Well Soon Mrs. Brannan."

Friday, January 22, the Little Blue's from Ligon High School in Raleigh, traveled to Durham to play the HHS Hornets. The varsity game got off to a good start right after the junior varsity game ended in victory for the Hornet's. At the end of the break and after the singing of the black National Anthem, "Lift Every Voice and Sing" the game got under way. The Hornets received the first two points of the game and we continued on to victory. We can truly say, "Oh Ligon, oh Ligon, oh Ligon you should have known better than to mess with us." Ligon didn't know better than to mess with us but we do hope that after the game Tuesday night Let's hope we can say the same to Durham High School.

Good luck to Miss O. J. as she endeavors to deceive her main squeeze. Jerome, Ruben, Donnie, Scobbie, and John get my love. Y. B. sends R. P. her love while E. M. receives M. D.'s love and as always A. K. just sends part of her love to P. J. because he can't handle it all. Bye now!!!

Diana Ross Marries Hollywood Businessman

LAS VEGAS, Nev. Diana Ross, 26, former lead singer of the Supremes trio, was married Wednesday (Jan. 20) to Robert Silberstein, a Beverly Hills businessman.

DIANA ROSS

The couple applied for a license a few minutes after midnight and exchanged vows at the Silver Bells Chapel in a candlelight ceremony. A half-dozen friends witnessed the rites.

THE REV. Frank Hutchinson conducted the ceremony with the bride dressed in a see-through paisley pant outfit. The groom, 25, wore sports jacket and slacks.

Miss Ross disengaged herself from the Supremes in 1970 to become a soloist in the pop music field.

THE marriage Wednesday was the first for both Miss Ross, former lead singer of "The Supremes," and Silberstein, vice president of a public relations firm.

Your professional hairdresser knows the answer... Is braiding your "natural" the only way to make it look better?

Do you have to braid your hair every night or everytime you wash it? Going through this process makes it easier to comb, keeps down split ends and helps give your 'fro more body. However, it sometimes takes several days of braiding to achieve these results.

The best and quickest way to keep a nice shaped 'natural' is to go to your professional hairdresser for the Kindness System from Clairol. It's the new way of styling and making a flimsy 'fro a fuller 'fro. The Kindness® Instant Hairsetter & Kindness® Heat-Activated conditioner are the instant problem solvers for tangles, breakage and damaged ends. It's great for all kinds of hair styles and wigs too!

After washing and towel drying your hair, the professional hairdresser applies the Kindness Heat-Activated Conditioner. It's formulated to give hair deep-down body and a healthy glow. Then, the Kindness Instant Hairsetter, with its warm-hearted rollers, is used to help penetrate the conditioner gently into your hair. This gives your hair more beauty and hold power for a style that lasts and lasts. Then, of course, the expert does the styling.

Why not talk to your hairdresser about using the Kindness System. From wash to set... including shaping... it takes less than an hour. Your professional hairdresser knows that the Kindness System is far better than tiresome braiding.
