ELIZABETH CITY — A late first half score prophesied the result of the game between the Elizabeth City Vikings, and the N. C. Central University Eagles Monday night.

Less than five minutes remained in the first period with Elizabeth City leading by one point, 27-26. By the end of the half the Vikings accumulated 17 points, out-ranking the Eagles with two.

The victory put the Vikings into unquestionable second place in the Southern Division of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, raising them to a 10-4 rank in the conference. They are 16-4 overall.

Third in the conference is N. C. Central with a 7-4 league mark. The Eagles are now at 7-10.

The Eagles previously defeated the Vikings on the Central home court 79-77.

Michael Gale a 6-3 1/2 All-American forward-guard was the Vikings prime scorer with 21 points. Gale was followed closely by Hubert Mooser with 17. Late in the first half the NCCU defense was forced open by the outside shooting of Holland Moore, scoring 10 points for the Vikings.

Top scorer for the Eagles was William Slade with 19 points. Redden Leggett edged this with 15.

The 17 points advantage final score was the largest lead of the evening for the Vikings. After submitting to the 44-23 half time advantage, the Eagles were not able to pull back. The Vikings continued to edge their scoring.

Walter Carter took 13 rebounds for the Vikings, followed by Gale with 10. Leggett retrieved 13 for the Eagles. The Vikings out-ranked the Eagles with an advantage of 52-44.

Central's next encounter will be at Winston-Salem State Thursday night. The Eagles will meet Johnson C. Smith, in Durham, Saturday night.

Howard's Streaking Five Headed For Madison Square Garden Basket Event

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Encouraged by the fact that they will be part of a four-team doubleheader, March 1, at Madison Square Garden, Coach Marshall Emery's Howard University Athletic Association (CIAA), by virtue of a current 10-3 pace. Overall, as of Saturday, the Bison sported a 16-5 posting.

Booked to face the University of Puerto Rico, in the finale at the Garden — following a lid-lifter between Dartmouth (N. H.) College and Dickinson University — the Bisons are expected to bring hundreds of supporters to New York.

lian communities.

Nathaniel R. Jones, NAACP general counsel; Julius Williams, director of military and veterans affairs; and Melvin Bolden, assistant counsel, have already spent two days in Frankfurt and will visit several other cities. They have interviewed a number of black servicemen to determine, firsthand, the nature and extent of racial discrimination here.

A special effort will be made to determine whether Negro servicemen are prevented from securing adequate off-base living accommodations because of racial prejudice on the part of German landlords. Numerous such reports have reached the National Office of the NAACP in recent months. Should these reports be substantiated, the NAACP is prepared to challenge the practice with the Pentagon.

A charity presentation for the Greer Children's Community of New York City, the joint Greer-Garden undertaking is anxious for the event to attract the largest possible audience.

The event could not possibly have happened at a more advantageous time for the Howard cage team. Built around solid veterans and two dazzling recruits, the Blue and White entry is challenging for CIAA honors.

Led by Captain Frank Spells a prouetting master from York, Pa., the Bison brigade includes veterans Larry Eato, Larry Jiggetts, Tommy Lee, Calvin Shingler, Henry R. odes, Thomas Gordon, Egidio Mello, Arnie Young, Shirli White and Achille Carroll.

Robert Lewis of Chicago and Warren Hollins, Wichita, Kansas, are the dazzling additions whose combined talents have lifted the Bisons from B+ to 'A' grade, on any court.

With an assist from New York alumni, the Bison entry can expect to see at least 10,000 persons in the Garden on Monday night, March 1. Dartmouth and Dickinson will play at 7 p.m., while Howard and Puerto Rico will buzz off at 9 p.m. Howard will be hosted at the McAlpin Hotel, Broadway at 34th Street.
