

CHURCH SERVICES HELD IN DURHAM AREA

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to each of you for the many cards, flowers, visits and words of cheer by telephone during my stay in the hospital and at home. I also wish to thank those who showed acts of kindness to my family. And above all the prayer that were offered in my behalf.

Again, thank you and may God bless each of you.

Mrs. Mildred B. Goode

LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. EMMA DAVIS BYNUM

Last rites were held for Mrs. Emma Davis Regins Bynum Friday, February 5, 1971, at the Mount Olive A.M.E. Zion Church with the Reverend E. H. Whitley delivering the Eulogy. Burial was in Beechwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Emma Davis Regins Bynum was born in Durham County to the late Frank and Mrs. Martha Bisban Davis. She departed this life February 1, 1971 at Watts Hospital.

Mrs. Bynum was a native of Durham, and her education was received in the County Schools. She joined the Mt. Olive A.M.E. Zion Church at an early age. She was a faithful, loyal and dependable Christian. To know her was to love her. She was an active member of the Deaconess Board, Stewardess Board Number 1 and Missionary Society and willing to do her best whenever she was called upon. She was well known and one of Durham's prominent citizens who retired several years ago.

She was first married to Eugene Regins and to this union one son Frank E. Regins, Jr., (deceased). She was later married to William (Buck) Bynum who also preceded her in death.

Survivors include: one sister, Mrs. Fannie B. Davis Green of East Orange, N. J., four grandchildren, Mrs. Emma R. Crump, Jerry W. Regins, Michael D. Regins, and Frank E. Regins, III; one great-granddaughter, Daniell Nichole Regins; two nieces, Miss Arnetta Davis of East Orange and, Miss Rosa Powell of Durham; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Ernestine Bynum Holmes of Goldsboro; two step grandchildren, Andrew Holmes, Jr., and Pier Holmes, and a host of other relatives and friends.

FINAL RITES HELD FOR MARVIN O. ROBERTS

Final rites were held for Marvin O. Roberts Thursday, January 28, 1971, at the Mount Vernon Baptist Church with the Reverend J. W. Barnes of Wilmington, N. C. delivering the Eulogy. Burial was in Glenview Memorial Park.

Be sure to be kind to your hair. Set it with the Kindness Swinger Instant Hairsetter by Clairrol. You'll never have to wear curlers to bed (or anywhere else) again! A helpful pick-me-up, it features five heat-at-once jumbo size rollers encased in a lightweight plastic carry-anywhere case.

FINAL RITES FOR MRS. CLARASTINE M. WALKER

Final rites were held for Mrs. Clarastine Montague Walker Thursday, January 14, 1971, at the Symon Grove Baptist Church, Creedmoor, with the Reverend W. R. McNeal delivering the message. Burial followed in the Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Clarastine M. Walker, the daughter of the late Jemmie Montague and Mrs. Elsie Worthan Montague, was born in Granville County. She succumbed January 11, 1971 at Lincoln Hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Walker joined Symon Grove at an early age, and after moving to Durham she attended Services in the city.

She received her education in the public schools of North Carolina.

She was married to Coy Lee Walker who survives.

In her homegoing this mother leaves to mourn also; two daughters, Miss Ernestine Walker and Miss Connie M.

CARDS OF THANKS

BYNUM
We wish to thank all of our many friends and neighbors for the acts of kindness, messages of love and sympathy, many cards, telegrams, food, cars for transportation and many beautiful floral tributes received during our bereavement in the loss of our beloved Grandmother, and sister, Mrs. Emma Davis Regins Bynum who passed in Watts Hospital after a short period of illness. Special thanks to the Pastor and members, and to those who carried on in our absence, co-workers and to each individual who came to share with us. "May God Bless and keep All of You". We say thank you again.

Church News And Events

FISHER'S MEMORIAL UNITED HOLY CHURCH NEWS

By MRS. LESSIE WILSON
The first Foreign Mission Day was held at the Church Sunday, January 31, at 3:00 p.m.

A very impressive program was arranged for the occasion. Mrs. France Watson presided and gave the call to worship and the invocation.

Inspirational music was rendered by the Senior Church Choir, with Mrs. Margaret W. Smith at the organ.

The officers of the Home Mission Department accompanied the speaker on the platform. The scripture was read from Psalm 2:1-11, by Mrs. Effie McCloud. The president of the Home Mission Department, Mrs. Grace Lawson, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Annie L. Filmore. Her thoughts were taken from St. Matthew 28:19-20, followed by other scripture text. We were greatly inspired by her words of wisdom, her grace and ability as she spoke the words of God in our hearing.

We are now ready to do more and greater service for others and those on the Foreign fields. Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Sarah Roberts, vice president, gave the response to the speaker's message.

The fields are white, already to harvest but the laborers are few. Pray that the Lord of the harvest will send laborers in his vine yard.

The Nannie Jones Bible

Walker, both of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Jennie V. McLeod of Durham and Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts of Oxford; and one brother, Scofield Montague of Durham, and a host of relatives and friends.

Class celebrated its 6th Anniversary Sunday, February 7, at 3:00 p.m.

The procession was led by the Channel Choir of the Church singing "Standing On The Promises," followed by the class members.

Mrs. Ocal Johnson gave the call to worship and led the invocation.

The congregation joined with the group as they sang the class song, "More Love To Thee." The scripture was read from St. John, Chapter 14 by Mrs. Pecolia Bracey, Miss Margo Brown extended words of welcome.

Very appropriate music for the occasion was rendered by the Challen Choir of the Church with Miss Willie A. Shaw at the organ.

The class history was read by Mrs. Linda Steele. Mrs. Mabel Kearns rendered the solo. Mrs. Lessie Johnson introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Willie B. Bradsher, an outstanding teacher in the educational department of the city school system.

She delivered a very timely and well prepared address "Your responsibility As A Member of the Nannie Jones Bible Class." Then she asked the question, "What Is Your Responsibility to God?" She spoke of the evils of the day in which we now live, and how to cope with the situation. The one source was Love for all mankind regardless to race or color. She said we did more asking for integration than we prepared ourselves for it. The struggle is not an easy one nor is it over yet. Love enough to share with those that have nothing. Love beauty and create beauty as we live. Time and space will not permit us to tell all of the wonderful things that she said, and the many experiences that she had during her teaching career.

Our guests were members of the E. B. Walker Bible Class of First Calvary Baptist Church and Turner's Bible Class at Fisher's Memorial. We report a successful anniversary service.

There is a destiny that makes us brothers. None goes his way alone. All that we sent into the lives of others, Comes back into our own.

SENIOR CITIZENS AT ST. TITUS' CHURCH CELEBRATE JANUARY BIRTHDAYS

On January 27, Senior Citizens at St. Titus' Church celebrated birthdays of all members born in January: Miss Lillian Burton, Mesdames Bessie Doby, Lena Gates, Frances Massey, Earley Massey-Taylor (Little Rock, Ark.), Allie Mitchell, Hattie Nunn, Nola Root (In nursing home) and Alice Tilly.

Bitter cold was the weather, but the warmth of spirits of twenty-two senior citizens who defied the weather to honor those January babies of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries was gratifying to witness.

The customary birthday trappings were in evidence. The long lace-covered table was laden with a variety of cakes, including a banana cake made by Mrs. Root's sister; a variety of sandwiches; ice cream, candies, nuts, and other knickknacks. All this the January babies had brought for refreshments, while other members had brought a shower of gifts for them. Honorees were served at their seats; but it was buffet service for the rest.

The pile of colorfully wrapped gifts and the cheerful greeting cards added to the prettiness of the setting. The clouds and the chilling winds outside were entirely forgotten for about two hours by the following: Misses Lola Allen and Lillian Burton; Mesdames Alice Brame, Lola Clark, Annie Cozart, Bessie Doby, Bertie Fowler, Lena Gates, Flonnie Goodloe, Julia Harris, Sallie Harris, Wilma Milum, Allie Mitchell, Hattie Nunn, Charity Rivera, Roxie Rowland, Elnora Smith; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mesdames Alice Tilley and Addie Williams.

Visitors were Miss Ida Hall and Mrs. Aleas Evans Greene. Mrs. Greene joined the chapter.

New officers for 1971 are Mrs. Bessie Doby, President; Mrs. Sallie Harris, Vice President; Mrs. Bertie Fowler, Secretary (re-elected); Mrs. Willa Coward, Assistant Secretary; Mrs. Flonnie Goodloe, Treasurer, (re-elected); Mrs. Wilma Milum, Chaplain; Mrs. Lena Gates, Assistant Chaplain. Mrs. Julia Harris is the coordinator.

MT. CALVARY NEWS

On Sunday, February 14, the Rev. J. C. Cheek will be speaking at the 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. services with the Mt.

Calvary Echoes furnishing the music.

Mesdames Janie Garnett and Lauretta Farrell will sponsor a program for the Lights of Virginia Tent No. 587 at 3:00 p.m. All visitors and Tent Sisters are asked to cooperate with them. There will be refreshments served at the conclusion of the program.

Please keep in mind that Miss Pricilla Brown is currently campaigning for the title of Miss UCBI from the Mt.

Calvary Church. Please give her your financial support.

We were pleased to receive into our church family eight new members who came by way baptism on last Sunday night. May we continue to act as the city that has been placed on the hill to guide men toward responsible fellowship with their fellowmen.

An extra good meal calls for an extra good word. Compliment Mom on her cooking.
