

Feminine Scene

American writer John Marquand said, "His father watched him across the gulf of years and ethos which always must divide a father from son."

Today's Scene At Hillside

By MICHELLE DEJARMON

Spring is finally here and with it, it has brought some startling and exciting endeavors. Many have begun practicing for different things while most seniors are busy doing term papers and getting measured for caps and gowns.

Mr. G's Swing School has begun practice while the Madrigals continue their weekly practices. The Senior class has begun work on their class play. Their advisors Mrs. J. H. Lucas is to be commended for the progress they are making so far.

The students of Mrs. Carlton's have been wished good luck by many because they have a term paper due on April 2, 1971. The one thing they can be assured of is that their term paper will not be "dry" as many term papers are. These term papers are to be done on things that are of interest to the writer.

Many students have found it convenient to take part in the clean up campaign, Scour Power. The Sophomores won first prize for performing the best of three skits to get the point of Scour Power across. Willie Alston won first prize for the most encouraging, exciting, and inspiring poster.

Since Spring has sprung, there have been track meets, tennis matches, and baseball games. These games are exciting in itself, but when you have loyal Hornets to play on the teams, one can't help but have a good team. On the tennis team, there is a young man named John Lucas who is a very fine tennis player.

Besides being a very good tennis player, John was chosen as the player of the year in basketball. John is very outstanding, but how can one help it when the coach was chosen as one of the coaches of the year. Congratulations to John Lucas and Coach Carl Easterling. We also have a very outstanding track star. His name is Eddie Romes and he is truly one of the fastest track men we have at Hillside. There is a team called the baseball team. On this team we have some of the most powerful young men at Hillside. One powerful young man on this team is Reginald Jones. There are more than three outstanding players at Hillside and all of them hold the same three qualities that these young men hold. They are all interested in sports, they play the sports to their fullest, and they all have excellent sportsmanship. All of our players hold these qualities and the Hornets Nest is proud of them.

Spring has also brought love and new styles. There have been mini's, midi's, maxi's and bellbottom pants, all during the school year. But now there is a new style that has hit Hillside. The style is hot pants. Now we can be put in the fashion world, because the Hornets are wearing them!

Love is here in the Hornets Nest. The Hornets have always been loved but now that Spring is here everyone has become more aware of it. There have been many different poems floating around and here is an excerpt from one:

"Do you love me or do you not? You told me but I forgot, Don't you know that God above? Created me for you to love!"

There are two other verses to that poem you know, so don't think that the Hornets don't know, all the Hornets don't know, all the poems in the book, just make sure you don't get hooked!

Yes, love is hitting HHS in many different ways but girls remember "you can't do what the guys do and still be a lady, because the sweeter he is, the longer the pain is going to last." But for the guys, remember, "Somebody's watching you because when you had me to yourself, you didn't want me around and now you want me back."

Love to Jerome, Ruben, Scobbie, Ronald and John. The students hope that Ronald's hair will soon grow back and they are so glad he is feeling a lot better. Many thanks to Gunnie's files! Bye now!!!!

Highlights At Durham HP

By AUDREY KEE

As the year quickly unfolds, many things are beginning to come to an end. At DHS the students, particularly the sophomores and juniors are elated over the fact that they will be given the chance to choose their subject teachers on the 19th and 20th of April for next school term. It is already understood that there will be a lot of difficulties but time will iron them out.

The success of the Junior Senior Prom depends greatly on the sale of the candy. The candy may be sold by any student at DHS regardless to Classification since sophomores are eligible to attend the Prom if invited by a Junior or a Senior. In order to clear a lot of minds, dues are not collected at this school for the Prom. As far as entertainment is concerned, the selection will be made between the Swinging Professionals, Johnny White and the Crusaders, and the Modulations. The group performing will be announced later on in the week by chairman Joyce Marie Pettiford. And now to reveal this year's theme ... "Monte-Carlo Casino Royale!!!"

The History Club will sponsor a Bake Sale March 29 thru April 3rd. Do contribute to this activity. All contributions will be greatly appreciated. The money raised from the bake sale will be used in benefit of the club's program. The program celebrated the Ideas of March on last Monday by wearing draped sheets, black arm bands, and ivy around the head in head bands. Very interesting.

It has been announced by DHS's principal, Mr. Earl Hedrick, that Durham High will hold its Humanities Festival beginning with the week of April 15, 1971. During this week each student will have the opportunity to involve themselves with professional persons equipped to answer or discuss any social, ethical, religious, etc. problem that is in focus today. This week students are to be excused from all study halls, free periods and lunch periods if agreeable by the teacher in charge to attend the designed place for each program.

The DHS Concert Choir is scheduled to sing for the morning services at Trinity Methodist Church. All choir members are asked to be on time.

Well, this just about raps it up for this week. To Bill Amey I wish you a Happy Belated Birthday and maybe your birthday should come more often in order that Ralph Barnette will have more opportunities to dance. Thanks Cheryl Ruffin for the use of your ... To Sheila, I say carry on. A very pleasant hello to Ball and Bunny, James and Joyce, and last but not least Big Bird.
