CHEYENNE SCOUTS CORNER

By E. L. KEARNEY

ORDINARY MEN
 In these days of rockets and satellites, of space flights and the question of the Psalmist takes on new meaning. "Thou has made him little less than God, and doest crown him with glory and honor." We have long known that the earth is but a speck of dust in the far corner of the universe, but now the reality of our size and position has been thrust home to us in a dramatic fashion. As we stand tiptoe on the very verge of space, we stop a moment and think of these ancient words. "What is man that thou art mindful of him and the son of man dost care for him?

 It is a sobering thought, but a wonderful one also as we realize that it is not man's size nor yet his achievements which provide the true measure of his worth.
 We are reminded of his tendency to pay too much to the externals of life, to be overly influenced by prestige or position. The danger comes when those things begin to blind us to the real value of things who have little of this world goods, or whose position is not of commanding importance.
 The disciples were rebuked when they attempted to prevent the little children from coming to Jesus. Jesus was born in Bethlehem to parents of whom the world has never seen or heard. A man should not be judged by his outward appearance, but by the heart.

 Today Scouting is seeking out institutions who have men available who have big hearts for little boys.
 So many small things can be used to reflect love and compassion, small deeds of ours which like the seven loaves, may bless the lives of countless boys if men only seek small opportunity. Small opportunities can make men a boy's real hero.
 The call today is for ordinary men, the call is for men to work. Christ called fishermen and tax collectors to be his disciples and with them "turned the world upside down". William Carey was a shoe maker and Kangawa an unwanted orphan. There is no limit to what ordinary men can do if they dedicate themselves to helping others.
 Termites were found to have eaten through a large stock pamphlet in the mail room of a large university. The pamphlets were entitled "Control of Termites". The best information is useless until it is put to work. So it is with program like Scouting without manpower the program cannot get to boys.

Being Lot no. 12 of Linwood Heights on which is located a dwelling house designated as no. 804 Cox Street and being more particularly described as follows: Beginning at a stake in the South side of Cox Street, East 120 feet from eastern edge of Grant Street (extended) at the Northeast corner of Lot 13 as shown on plat hereinafter referred to and running thence with said lot South 21 degs. 26' West, 98.1 feet to Northwest corner of Lot 3; thence with said lot South 67 degs. 51' East 55 feet to southwest corner of Lot 11; thence with said lot North 21 degs. 28' East, 98.8 feet to Cox Street; thence with said Street North 68 degs. 35' West 55 feet to the beginning, and being Lot 12 of Linwood Heights, as shown on survey dated December, 1948, by L. F. Tilley, R.L.S., and recorded in Plat Book 18, at page 184, to which plat and survey reference is hereby expressly made for a more particular description of same.
 This property will be sold subject to all prior encumbrances and all 1970 ad valorem taxes and assessments.
 This sale will remain open for ten (10) days to receive increased bids, as required by law.

HERE'S INSPIRATION for chic chicks who love leg drama! This laced Granny style in Shin-Shams, a new concept in featherlight stretch leg fashions by Burlington's First Editions, is high voltage flattery worn with a figure hugging yellow and black sweater and high slit yellow skirt with black pockets and yellow shoes. The stretch nylon feet of Shin-Shams, fitting inside the shoes, create the illusion of an expensive high fashion leather boot that varies with the style of each shoe. The leg portion of Shin-Shams is made of a unique stretch nylon fabric coated with polyurethane that looks like fine crinkled leather, hugs the skin for a dynamic most in boot flattery and is hand washable.
