THE GOURMET TOUCH

by Emanuel Greenberg, Distinguished Author and Culinary Authority

NEW YORK (ED) - When President Hoover promised a chicken in every pot, he wasn't far from the mark. Chicken today is served everywhere and often. To cooks, chicken is one of the most adaptable and economical of main dishes. A good, plump chicken takes to all sorts of cooking variations - frying, roasting, broiling, or embellishment with a cream sauce, or preparation with other meats, fruits or vegetables.

For an elegant main dish, here's a delicate chicken roast that comes off well for company. The gourmet touch: a zesty addition of lemon juice and Bourbon, flamed to add extra flavor. Igniting liberates the alcohol and almost all the calories flame away - a beautiful non-fattening bonus. The result is a tender chicken with crisp, roasted skin.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q More than a month ago I requested that tax be withheld on my pension, but I've noticed no change in the amount of my pension check. Doesn't my old firm have to start withholding immediately?

A The payer of your pension does not have to begin withholding until three months after you filed your Form W-4P, Annuity's Tax Withholding. Although withholding is optional on your part, the payer must comply with your request to withhold tax.

Q I do a lot of traveling on my new job. What kind of records should I keep?

A Your records should show amounts, dates, destinations and business purpose. A diary or similar record, supported by items such as canceled checks and paid bills, is acceptable if entries are made Q Can I still deduct my stock market losses dollar-for-dollar from my capital gains?

A Yes, these losses can still be used to offset capital gains. However, if you have a net long-term capital loss, each $1 of the loss can be used to offset only 50¢ of ordinary income. A net short-term capital loss can still be used to reduce ordinary income on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Net capital loss deductions are generally limited to $1,000.

Q I saw a notice on the bulletin board at work that some people may not have enough tax withheld this year. How do I find out if I'm one of them?

A Estimate your 1971 tax liability and the amount of tax that will be withheld based on your current withholding. This can be done from tables the IRS has given your employer. If you should find more withholding is needed, you should claim fewer exemptions and, if necessary, have additional dollar amounts withheld. You can do this by filing a new exemption certificate (Form W-4) with your employer.

Q Is it true that I can claim a credit on the tax I pay on the gas and oil I use for my boat?

A Yes. When you file your return next year, you may claim a credit of 2¢ per gallon for gasoline and a credit of 6¢ per gallon for lubricating oil. Be sure to keep adequate records to substantiate your credits. When you file your return use Form 4136 to claim the credit. IRS Publication 378, Federal Gas Tax Credit or Refund for Non-highway and Transit Users, may be helpful. Send a postcard to your local IRS office to obtain a copy.

Would you recommend ROTC to a young man headed for college?

If you're good enough to get an Army ROTC scholarship, it'll pay for all your tuition, books and lab fees. And give you year-round spending money.

If you're a high school graduate and you take ROTC when you get a crack at a three-year scholarship in your freshman year. Or a two-year one the year after. Or one that'll pay for your last year.

With Army ROTC, you never lose. Even if you don't win a scholarship and the folks wind up footing the bills, you get an Army commission when you graduate. That makes a college investment pay off a lot better. For years to come.

As an Army officer, you'll exercise leadership. Manage men and material. Work closely with people from all walks of life. From all over the country. And you'll have the chance to see some of the world, too.

ARMY ROTC. A great way to make it.
