

Groundbreaking Set For John Avery Club

WORDS OF WISDOM

Mere criticism is like shadow-boxing: It may be good for the liver, but it won't win the fight.

—Alexander Markey

Men are not judged by how they start, but by how they finish.

—J. Richard Sneed

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDLED

GOOD READING IN THIS ISSUE

PAN AFRICAN-USA TRACK MEET 6A & 7A
 MISSISSIPPI AS I SEE IT By Donald Love
 TAKING A CLOSER LOOK By John Myers
 TODAY'S SCENE AT HILLSIDE By M. DeJarmon
 WRITERS FORUM By George B. Russ
 DURHAM SOCIAL NOTES By Mrs. Symner Daye

VOLUME 50 — No. 30

DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 24, 1971

PRICE: 20 CENTS

I'M COOLING IT!—Who cares about the heat? As long as I can get that dip in the warm and refreshing sudsy tub prepared by Mommy, the mercury can soar to the 90's. I stayed home last week-end while the rest of the family went to the Pan Africa-USA track meet. I heard it was plenty hot in the stadium. Bet they could have used the spot I'm in many times.

WHITE ROCK BAPTIST TO MEMORIALIZE CHARLES CLINTON SPAULDING SUNDAY

17th Annual Scholarship Day to Be Observed at Morning Service

The Seventeenth Annual Charles Clinton Spaulding Scholarship Day will be observed at the White Rock Baptist Church on Sunday, July 25 at the regular morning worship service.

Charles Clinton Spaulding became the third President of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company on April 29, 1923 and served in that capacity until his death on August 1, 1952. He served as President of the Mechanics and Farmers Bank and The Mutual Savings and Loan Association. He was an ardent and devoted member of the White Rock Baptist Church and served as Chairman of the Trustee Board and a Deacon.

In 1953, the church established a Memorial Scholarship Fund, and Trustee N. A. Cheek was named Chairman of a Committee to administer the Fund. Scholarships have been awarded to students to attend Shaw University.

The speaker for the occasion will be Dr. James M. Schooler Jr. Dr. Schooler is a native of Durham, was educated in the Durham City Schools, and graduated from Hillside High School as Valedictorian in 1953.

From 1953 to 1957 he attended Wittenberg University, Springfield, Ohio. There he received the following awards and honors: University Scholarship, 1953-1956; President's Scholarship, 1955-1956; Harry Graham Citizenship Award (Social Sciences), 1956.

During his four years at Wittenberg he held membership in Phi Alpha Theta (History) and Blue Key (Service and Leadership).

His activities as a student included President of Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society, President League, Treasurer of Wittenberg Christian Fellowship, Treasurer of the Class of 1957, Member of the Marching and Concert Bands and Orchestra, 1953-1957.

(See MEMORIALIZE 8A)

NAACP Resolutions Set Forth Policy Of The Organization

MINNEAPOLIS — Basic policies of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People are set forth in a series of 42 resolutions, covering practically every aspect of the civil rights struggle, adopted by the delegates attending the Association's 62nd annual convention here, July 5-9.

In addition to internal affairs, the resolutions dealt with problems in such areas as housing, education, voter registration, political action, the armed services and veterans affairs, drug abuse, the administration of justice, consumer protection, economic advancement, hospitals, health and welfare, and foreign affairs. Because of the pressure of time, 15 resolutions submitted by the Resolutions Committee were referred to the Association's Board of

(See RESOLUTIONS 8A)

IN NEW ASSIGNMENT—Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe talks with Lt. General Benjamin O. Davis, Jr. (USAF-Ret.), recently nominated by President Nixon to be the Assistant Secretary of Transportation for Safety and Consumer Affairs.

Methodists Oust Two Officials For Alleged Misuse of Monies

LOS ANGELES, Calif. —

As the result of a hearing committee's findings as to Dr. A. C. Gaston, treasurer, and Bishop W. F. Ball, who presides over South Carolina, the General Board, African Methodist Episcopal Church, dismissed both here Friday for alleged misuse of monies. The treasurer was suspended from office and the prelate removed as chairman of the General Board.

The action is the result of several church and court fights for sometime. The millionairess, from Birmingham, Ala., had been a target for not only issuing unauthorized checks on the monies, but utter defiance of the law and rulings of the 2,000,000-member organizations, the largest black Methodist religious body.

The hearings began July 14 when a trial panel began to review charges made by three members of the General Board. The charges against Gaston ranged from issuing checks for purposes and persons which were not properly approved. He was charged with having paid large sums to lawyers allegedly hired to defend him and other accused persons. The hearing revealed that a white law firm of Memphis, Tenn., received $49,000.00 and a Washington lawyer received an

(See METHODISTS 8A)

Veteran Church Woman Dies in Morning Flames

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — A.M.E. Zion Church circles were shocked when word was received that Mrs. S. Anna Magruder, 91, had lost her life Thursday night, July 15, in her home here. The tragic death is believed to have resulted from the victims' attempt to burn some papers.

She was the widow of a veteran minister, who pioneered the work of the A.M.E. Zion Church in the far west. Dr. E. J. Magruder. He was not only a preacher, but was a practicing doctor of medicine. She served with him as he pastored churches in Hanford, Sacramento and San Francisco.

Mrs. Magruder made great contributions in her own right. She served the local church as a Sunday School teacher for a number of years. She worked consistently with the missionary department on all levels. Her interest in children was expressed in the work she did with the Buds of

(See FLAMES 8A)

New Boys' Club To Be Located S. W. Cor. Pettigrew And Grant

PIONEER IN TELEVISION (St. Louis)—Rev. Cleophus Robinson, world-famed as one of the foremost gospel preacher-singers, was awarded a "Pioneer in Television" plaque last month by KTLR-TV for his unique contribution to the visual communications media by Jim Heard, manager of the station.

Groundbreaking for the new John Avery Boys' Club will be held at 4:30 P.M. Sunday at the southwest corner of Pettigrew and Grant Streets.

W. J. Kennedy, Jr., president, will serve as master of ceremonies that will also feature brief remarks from Mayor pro-tem John S. Stewart, chairman of the building committee.

The public is invited to the program.

Special representatives are expected from the Durham United Fund and from the Redevelopment Commission.

The Club is moving from its former temporary location at 2515 Fayetteville Street. Prior to removal to the Fayetteville Street location in June, 1967, the club had occupied a $125,000 brick building at 506 Branch Place, since 1959. Urban renewal and the East-West Expressway are utilizing the Former Branch Place property.

The late Juvenile Court

(See BOYS' 8A)

Dea. W. Allen To Deliver Trial Sermon Sunday

DEACON ALLEN

Deacon Willie G. Allen, Production Manager for The Carolina Times Newspaper, will deliver his trial sermon at True-Way Church of God in Christ Jesus, Inc., 3:00 p.m., Sunday, July 25.

Deacon Allen, who's motto, "To Preach the Truth to the People", is a native of Erwin. He came to Durham at the age of four and made it his home. He received his education at Hillside High School and Durham College. His religious training is comprised of 18 years served as a deacon

(See TRIAL 8A)

Nixon Names Retired General To Trans. Post

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Nixon sent to the Senate recently the nomination of retired Air Force Lieutenant General Benjamin O. Davis, Jr. to be Assistant Secretary of Transportation for Safety and Consumer Affairs.

Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe said: "As Director of the Department of Transportation's Office of Civil Aviation Security, General Davis has done an outstanding job working with the airlines, airport operators, and other government agencies on the security problems facing our air commerce industry. In his new job he will coordinate the Department's safety and consumer activities and direct the hazardous materials, pipeline safety and transportation security programs. I am confident his leadership will be a vital element for the success of our efforts."

President Nixon appointed General Davis Director of Civil Aviation Security last September 21. On June 17 of this year, Secretary Volpe named him Acting Assistant Secretary to replace Willard Smith, who retired on June 30. Born in Washington, D.C., General Davis, 58, is a 1936 graduate of the United States

Slaying Of Guards Still Mystery

WILMINGTON — Police Chief H. E. Williamson said last week his department has made no headway in the investigation of the slaying of two security guards at a local junior high school.

National Insurance Association's Fifty-First Session Opens Mon.

CHICAGO, Ill. — Using the theme, "Preparation and Dedication for the Seventies," the National Insurance Association will issue a call for excellence in business at its 51st annual convention.

The 4-day meeting will begin July 6 at the Hilton Hotel in Detroit and will conclude the association's year long golden anniversary.

In his presidential report and keynote address, President Leroy R. Taylor, associate actuary, North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Durham, will trace steps taken during his term of office to keep the NIA on course as the leading example of minority entrepreneurship.

Foremost among its activities in past months has been the launching of NIA Corporation with its formal incorporation in the State of Delaware last December. A full scale report on its structure and its anticipated role as a source of financial and managerial support to member companies will be delivered Wednesday, July 28, by H. A. Gilliam, Sr., second vice president-personnel administrator, Universal Life Insurance Co., chairman of the Task Force charged with setting the corporation's machinery in motion.

Featured speaker for the Presidents' Banquet, the traditional entertainment highlight of each annual convention, will be Mrs. Elizabeth Koontz, director, Women's Bureau, U. S. Department of

(See INSURANCE 8A)

Century Club of N. C. Educators Credit Union Formally Organized

The Century Club of the N. C. Educators Credit Union, Inc. was formally organized July 17, in Durham. The group was welcomed by Mrs. L. M. Harris, President of Durham College, and the response was given by Mrs. Ruth L. Woodson, representing the State Department of Public Instruction.

Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, President of Fayetteville State University, was the featured speaker. He captured the audience on the theme that one of the most fundamental features of existence, is economic security. He urged his audience to do everything possible to develop a sense of urgency on the part of the people to save a portion of their earnings regularly in support of the expanded program of saving to be sponsored by the Century Club, for the N. C. Educators Credit Union, Inc. By-Laws representing the work of a special committee were presented by G. H. Washington, and as amended by the persons present were approved. The elections committee's report was presented by H. D. Pickett, and after nominations were made from the floor the following officers were selected: President, J. W. Mask, Jr.; Vice President, Mrs. Annie Mae Alston; Secretary, Mrs. S. R. Jenkins; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Leona B. Daniel; Parliamentarian, W. E. Hall; Treasurer, Charles Irving; Coordinators At Large, G. H. Washington and W. R. Collins; Executive Committee members at

(See CENTURY 8A)

WATTS IN WASHINGTON—Leon O. Woods, Watts Manufacturing Corporation president (left) was honored by Religious Heritage of America as "Business Man of the Year" for having accomplished one of the most outstanding jobs in America in training hard-core unemployables into an outstanding work force and excellent citizens. Presenting the award recently in Washington, D. C. was F. Ritter Shumway, board chairman of the United States Chamber of Commerce.