POLITICS VS ECONOMY
Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has asked Congress to put politics aside and summon a bipartisan meeting of Capitol Hill and Nixon Administration leaders to find a way out of the nation's economic morass. He said he fears the nation has run out of luck on the economic front just as it did in Vietnam.

Today's Scene At Hillside

By MICHELLE DEJARMON

Last week, The Youth for Progressive Education presented a Teacher, Student, Parent Conclave in the St. Joseph's AME Church. The conclave was a three day session and the co-ordinators for the sessions were: Jimmy Hill, Larry S. Hinton, William Kennedy, Robert Rivers, and Garcia Sampson. During the conclave, there were several different workshops they were: I. School Rules and Regulations - Discipline; II. Race Relations; III. Communications - Teacher - Student Attitudes; IV. Parental Involvement in schools; V. Black Elementary Education; VI. Sports. The parents, Teachers and Students that attended these workshops were able to choose which workshop they would like to attend, or which workshops they felt that they could contribute to the most.

During the conclave there were many questions brought up. Most of them were of great importance. I would just like to list a few of them and let you the teacher, parent, or student answer these for yourself: In the school system, are lower income children ever discriminated against? Are all children given a fair chance? Within the Black Race, are our Black students a constant product of discrimination by us, the black teacher? If a child is trying to convey his thought but is held back by the fact that he cannot communicate will the black teacher take his or her time out to help them? De we the Black teacher just go to pick up our pay check or do we go to really help students? These were questions asked for the benefit of the teacher; here are some asked for the benefit of the student. Do we the students go in just to give our Black teacher a hard time or do we the Black student go in to learn? If the answer to this is yes, then no wonder our Black teachers along with the white teachers go in with a prejudicial attitude.

These are all things to think about!

Congratulations to William H. Cogwell the new drum major of the HHS Marching Band. Congratulations to Misses Cheryl Stewart and Felicia Harrington, two new majorettes for HHS. Congratulations are also in order for Misses Clarissie Lipscomb and Phyllis Harrington our two new head majorettes.

The students of HHS would like to thank all of the co-ordinators for the Youth for Progressive Education Conclave because from the things that were discussed on August 10th, 11, and 12 it seems that there will be a lot of good things to come out of this conclave.

Was haircoloring first done in Africa?

Centuries ago in Africa (before it was explored by Europeans) beautiful black women used herbs and other ingredients to change the color of their hair. It was one way to complement their dark rich complexions... to accent their natural warmth and beauty. Whether or not Africans were the first to use this method, no one is sure. Yet they are among the first in terms of recorded history to go through the then-tedious process of coloring their hair.

Today changing your haircolor can be as quick and as brief as a visit to your professional hairdresser. That's because many professional hairdressers use Miss Clairol® Hair Color to lighten hair, to make slight color changes and to cover gray. Hairdressing experts know that exotic blacks and browns are generally gorgeous for darker skin tones. Golden or red shades are stunning for lighter tan complexions.

Today black pride brings you closer to the cultural ways of your African heritage. Haircoloring is a part of black history too. Ask your professional hairdresser about changing your hair color with Miss Clairol... and be more beautiful than you already are.

What They Wore...by PHYLLIS JOYCE

WOMEN'S LIBERATION FASHION

WOMEN'S LIBERATION HAS HAD A CONSIDERABLE EFFECT ON FASHION. BACK IN THE EARLY 1920'S, WHILE SUFFRAGETTES MARCHED OTHER WOMEN STRAIGHTENED THE LINES OF THEIR CLOTHES, IGNORED THEIR WAIST AND ADOPTED THE "FLAT" LOOK. IN SHORT- THEY DID EVERYTHING TO DE-FEMINIZE THEMSELVES.

EMANCIPATION IS SYNONYMOUS WITH THE DISAPPEARANCE OF BRIGHT COLORS. DURING THE SOCIAL UPEHAVAL FOLLOWING THE FRENCH REVOLUTION MOST WOMEN WORE WHITE.
