

director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance, discusses with two men.bers of his staff a new proposal for widening job opportunities for acting chief of the Division that coordinated development of the proposal, and Robert Brauer, as-sistant director of OFCC for agency operations. When adopted, the proposed rule will require Fed-eral contractors and subcontrators to develop numerical goals within a specified time frame "to remedy the underutilization of women."

Harrington Appointed Chairman Of NCCU Endowment Fund Committee

Educators Credit Union Urges Strengthening of Club Treasure

The North Carolina Educa- 1 means of developing a greater tors Credit Union, Inc., held its organizational meeting in Durham, N. C. at the Durham on July 17, 1971. Per-desire to save regularly. Keep attention focused on the graduating scale of dividend nents through 1976, when

Pan Africa Display To Open At NCCU

"Pan Africa 1971," an exhibit of art forms from various na-tions in Africa, reopened at the North Carolina Central Uni-versity Art Museum Wednesday. tions

The exhibit will be open Tuesday through Saturday each week until Sept. 30, fron: 1 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. Some 140 items are on display.

Julian Bond, Georgia Legislator To Speak At Duke Univ. Sun.

Julian Bond, the young civil veteran of the civil rights and rights leader the Georgia House of Representatives couldn't blacks in the South. He is one keep out, will deliver a public of a very few state legislators address at Duke University here Sunday, university officials announced.

Bond's 8 p.m. speech in Baldwin Auditorium on the East Campus will be sponsored mittee (SNCC), was first by the campus Association of elected by reapportionment of African Students (formerly the the Georgia House in 1965, but Afro-American Society).

seminar at 2 p.m. in the Chemistry Building in Room 107. Both appearances are political struggles waged by whose name is known throughout the country, an association spokesman said. Bond, a leader in Student Nonviolent Coordinating Comwas prevented from taking of-tion in February, 1966 - to

(See BOND page 2A)

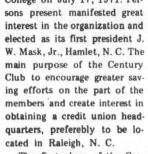

A spokesman for the group fice the following January by said Bond also will appear at a members of the legislature who objected to his statements criticizing the war in Vietnam. After winning a second elec-

Africa-USA Track Meet Profits Honored By

DR. THOMPSON

Dr.R. Thompson

The first phase of the Century Club responsibility is to:

at Raleigh.

Create an awareness of the importance of saving as a we hope to reach a maximum of 6%. Develop the desire to save first, as a means of building financial security. Project the services of the credit union beyond the personal loan business, to include: Home financing

Car purchasing Repairs and remodeling

Gradual increase in dividend payments to reach the maximum

(See CREDIT page 2A)

DR. WHITING HARRINGTON

LIGGETT & MYERS PRES. ACCEPTS Shared By Three Local Charities CommunityClub

MILLION DOLLAR DRIVE POSITION By JOHN MYERS

nounced the appointment and At a 12 o'clock noon lunchacceptance of Milton E. Hareon at the Blair House, Wedrington as the first Chairman nesday 8, Dr. Albert N. Whitof the North Carolina Central ing, President of North Caro-University Endowment Fund Campaign Committee.

William P. Malone, Director of Development for the university, stated, "to the best of our knowledge, this is the first time the Chief Executive Officer of a major corporation has headed a campaign for a predominantly black institution of higher education." The major goal of the newly formed endowment fund committee is to raise one million dollars. The endowment fund which now stands at 300,000, will generate income to be used to supplement faculty salaries at the state-supported institution. Liggett & Myers has thus

Central University, where alfirst considered for an inter-> the story officially ended Thursday, September 2. Dr. Leroy Walker, Chairman checks of $2500 each to Mrs. Muriel Smith, representating UNICEF. Alex Gilleskie with the City Recreation Department, and Lee Smith with the John Avery Boy's Club. Also awarded to the three representatives were Pan Africa-USA Track Meet Medals.

open to the public.

At the age of 31, Bond is a

Walker for the 100 boys and sented profits of the Pan girls who were able to see the Africa-USA Track Meet in track meet at no expense. She also thanked meet officials in behalf of the needy children of the world who UNICEF strives to assist. Gilleskie offered a simple thank you for all those in need who his organization tries to help. The money going to (See TRACK page 2A) Mrs. Smith thanked Dr.

Dr. Ray Thomps Plum Street was honored by the Plum Street Community Club Labor Day at the club's annual family and friends pic-

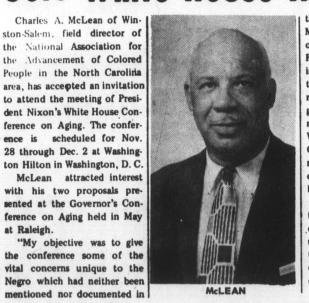

A Bronze Plaque was presented to Dr. Thompson by Mrs. Virginia W. Alston on behalf of the organization for his many years of service rendered to and for the community as a whole.

Dr. Thompson is well known and loved for his leadership and interest in the civic, religious and educational growth and development of all people.

He is an instructor in the Education Department, NCCU, and is a member of Covenant United Presbyterian Church.

Panthers To Move U.S. Headquarters To Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, .Ga. Black Panthers leader Huey Newton announced Wednesday the black militant organization is moving its headquarters from Oakland, Calif., to Atlanta.

the conference summary," McLean said. "I wanted these observations presented at the President's conference. It was imperative to get them before the governor's conference. My resolutions was accepted at the general session of the governor's conference. Dr. Ellen Winston, Chairman of the Governor's Advisory Committee for the White House conference, requested that they be forward to her."

The proposals: "It is urged that the Governor's Conference on Aging include as an issue under the Income Task Force that the existing minimum ageeligibility requirements for receipt of Social Security be (See McLEAN page 2A) far given the fund its largest single unqualified contribution. The enrollment of the university includes a substantial majority of students from low income families. More than half the student body in recent years has come from families whose total income was less (See HARRINGTON page 2A)

By JOHN MYERS

In the President's Conference Room at North Carolina most a year ago, plans were national track meet in Durham,

Meet Coordinator, preand

Dr. Leroy Walker presents track medal to Dr. Albert Whiting

lina Central University, an-McLean, NAACP N.C.Field Dir. Gets White House Invitation