Compromise Ends Alabama Dispute On Racial Hirings

BUTLER, Ala. — An agreement between white civic leaders and black civil rights activists has ended, at least temporarily, months of demonstrations that saw more than 400 arrests.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which helped organize the demonstrations, called it the SCLC's greatest victory.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Hester In Oxord Sep. 7

Last rites were held Tuesday September 7 at 3:30 p.m., for Mrs. Mary Kittrell Hester, at the Huntsville Baptist Church, Oxford, with the Reverend Frank Smith, Pastor delivering the Eulogy. Burial was in Oak Grove Baptist Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Kittrell Hester, daughter of the late James and Mrs. Sallie Harris Kittrell was born in Granville County, November 25, 1884, and departed this life Friday September 3, 7:45 a.m. 1971, following an extended illness. She received her training in the public schools of N. C.

Mrs. Hester was married to the late William Hester, Sr., and this union had nine children.

She was a member of the Huntsville Baptist Church for many years, where she served diligently in many capacities until her illness. She was a devoted mother, and during her lifetime she gained many friends due to her church and community work. She labored long and hard striving to always do her best in any way she could.

In her homegoing she leaves to mourn their loss: three sons, William Hester Jr., of Oxford, Robert and Johnny Hester both of Durham; six daughters: Mrs. Lucille Archie and Miss Mary Hester, of the home, Mrs. Rebecca Hunt, Oxford, Mrs. Felicia Revels, Mrs. Eunice Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Adams, all of Durham; one brother, Henry Kittrell, of Oxford; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Willie Kittrell, of Hackensack, New Jersey; thirty-one grandchildren, thirty-four great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

LONDON — Britain's national health Service, financed largely by public funds, cost nearly $4.5 billion in 1969-70, the government announced.

Man Indicted In 1964 Slaying Of 8-Year-Old

HILLSVILLE, Va. — Joseph Francis Bryan of Audubon, N. J., has been indicted by a Carroll County grand jury in the murder of an eight-year-old boy seven years ago.

Bryan, 32, was indicted Monday in the death of David W. Wulff Jr. in 1964.

Bryan was charged in 1964 with kidnaping four young boys and is now serving a kidnaping sentence in federal prison.

John Perry Alderman, commonwealth's attorney, sought the indictment before the statute of limitations would take effect.

The boy's body was found in a wooded section of Carroll County in May 1964.
