

Roger-Herr Enrichment Program Slated

Last year at Rogers-Herr Junior High School parents in the PTA took on the job of trying to assist the faculty cope with the demands of teaching large groups of children with a wide range of abilities. Teachers were asked to request the kinds of help that they would need and the Enrichment-Tutorial Committee set to work finding tutors, arranging transportation.

Many students from North Carolina Central University and Duke University and many parents volunteered and served many hours tutoring individual students or leading curriculum. An art class went to work with watercolors in the Duke Gardens, a student interested in medicine took a tour of the Medical Center with his tutor, a large group made a special study of the novel, individual students needing help with math or reading saw tutors several times a week, and so it went. About 170 children desperately need volunteers to offer their skills or to provide transportation to some college students who have already volunteered.

Are you a concerned parent who can make time for one or more hours a week? a retired person? a college student or perhaps a teacher, retired or taking time out to raise a family? Volunteers may sign up for 8 weeks at a time, for any amount of time by calling a committee member listed and by making an appointment with the teacher to work out an agreement. We urge you to try to arrange your own transportation to the school but the committee will arrange it if you are unable to do so. If you decide to work in the program continuing consultation will be available to you at the school should you have questions or problems.

The kinds of help which the faculty can use can range from one-to-one-tutors, small group tutors, room resource people who can assist the teacher in making arrangements for trips, special classroom projects, etc., (This work can often be done at home at your own convenience.) special talent people who can come to talk about their work, profession, or their hobby or teach a short course in a particular subject.

Rogers-Herr Enrichment-Tutorial Committee: Janice Palmer, 489-9685; Katherine Brieger, 489-3867; Rachael Schanberg, 489-2435; James Grant, 286-7702 (day); 489-2888 (evenings).

Deaconess Group To Sponsor Annual Program Sunday

The annual program of the Deaconess Group of the First Calvary Baptist Church will be held Sunday, October 10, 1971, at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

The Reverend Richard James, Sr. Pastor of the Haw River Baptist Church, will deliver the message. His congregation will accompany him. Others appearing on the program will be members of the church organization. The Chancel Choir of the First Calvary Church will render music.

The Reverend James is well known throughout the city of Durham and surrounding areas due to his many affiliations with various religions, civic and fraternal organizations and the positions held in each one. A staunch Mason, labor union leader, Reverend James is a former Sunday School Superintendent of the First Calvary Church, where he served as a deacon for many years. He also holds positions in the East Cedar Grove Association, the Fifth District Sunday School Convention and many others.

Mrs. Victoria Joyner is chairman of the Deaconess Group; Reverend A. L. Thompson is pastor.

Grooving With Chuckle Harris

Hi soul brothers and sisters, and of course, to anyone else who care enough to want the very best. Fire Prevention Week got off to a bang Monday morning at 10 a.m. with Hillside marching band kicking things off with a blast. Various other schools also participated in this parade; Durham High, Northern, Southern and others.

Let us take a quick trip back to the Windy City. September 29, through October 3, was the scene of Black Expo 1971. This phenomenal rendition of Young, Gifted, and Black businessmen, politicians, and singers, as well, attracted about 450,000 people. It was hosted by the well known Rev. Jesse Jackson, executive director of SCLC. It is anticipated that through the years it will become bigger and better. The logic behind the reasoning is: 1) to instill black pride in black children who never thought there were black business owners; 2) to show that black businessmen could improve their displays, make them more sophisticated; 3) to create an umbilical cord relationship between black businesses and black politics. The theme for Black Expo 1971 was Harambee meaning to come together or pull together.

Often you would hear an argument of which radio station is Number One. We at WSRC have recently been selected Number One. A recent survey of the highest surveys in radio proven once and for all who is Number One, and of course, it is WSRC. If it sounds as if I'm bragging, you're right, of course I am because all the fellows, at WSRC have worked hard and diligently to become Number one, and you (the public) demanded the best and it has now paid off. Because you are the most wonderful people in the world, you have made us Number One, so with people like you on our side, it will not be out of order to say "thank you very much Durham for making us Number One." For those of you who wish to know, this survey was conducted many many weeks. There are methods used in conducting a survey such as this: door-to-door, telephone, cards, and letters. The entire broadcast day is taken from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m. daily. It is broken down in all age groups, even professions. We at WSRC want to thank you, and you can very well see why. Thank you again.
