Eagles Defeat Howard Univ Bisons 42-18 Sat., Nov. 13

By JAMES VAUGHAN
The Eagles of North Carolina Central University trampled Howard University Saturday for the final homegame scoring 42 points in the first half; retiring its first stringers in the second half and even playing third stringers in final moments of the game.

Daryle Simpson, third-string quarterback was allowed to captain the team with two plays and end one of the Eagles most outstanding games for the season.

This particular game, unlike other Eagles games, thrilled spectators with dazzling offensive knowhow. Formerly, NCCU has been noted for a tremendous defensive squad. Saturday, however, the Eagle squad established itself as a skilled, balanced team.

Jefferson Inmon and Ken Ingram scored two touchdowns apiece and Garvin Stone and Clifton Herring passed for 115 yards in the first half.

The action began as Howard's Frank Ridley ran 15 yards on the third play after the kickoff, but then fumbled on NCCU's 46 yard line. The Eagles recovered with Inmon picking up a quick 12 yards on the first snap.

James Smith joined Inmon in picking up yardage as Inmon finally scored from the 10-yard line with 9:33 left in the first quarter. As the quarter ended, Inmon scored from the three following a 51-yard run to position the ball.

The PAT was made successfully after each of Inmon's touchdowns by Charles Bellinger, previously inconsistent at kicking. Bellinger kicked four straight extra points in Saturday's game.

The Howard Bisons started the second quarter with an out-of-bounds punt at the 50-yard line. Stone hit Franklin Tate for a 25-yard pass play to put the ball at the Howard 23, and Inmon ran from the 17 to the 8 for another first down.

James Smith tallied from the three, and Bellinger kicked another extra point.

A partially-blocked punt gave the Eagles the ball again four downs later at Howard's 14. Clifton Herring, in for Stone (who saw no further action), pitched out to William Guilford for the touchdown run. Bellinger's last PAT was good, and the score was 28-0.

Charles Bailey intercepted a Howard pass on the Bisons' second play from scrimmage. Herring ran for seven yards, then gave the ball to Herman Anderson for a 15-yard run to the five. At this point, Ingram took the ball over for the fifth Eagle touchdown.

(Ingram had replaced Inmon, and Anderson had replaced Smith in the Eagle lineup at this point. The starting halfback and fullback saw no further action.)

Guilford ran for two points on the conversion, making the score 36-0.

With 3:27 left in the half, Ingram ran from the Bison 24 for the final Eagle touchdown. Herring's pass failed for the conversion, and the Eagles had 42 points.

As the third quarter ended, Copeland threw a 25-yard pass to Dennis Mosley for another six points and the score was 42-12, and with 9:38 left in

GREGORY JONES IS NAMED TO METHODIST COLLEGE CAGE TEAM

FAYETTEVILLE — Gregory Velnie Jones of Rougemont has been named to the Methodist College basketball team for the 1971-72 season. A 6'4", 181 lb. guard, Jones is a freshman at Methodist. He is a 1971 graduate of Northern High School in Durham and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory B. Jones of Route 1, Rougemont.

Methodist "Monarch" Coach Gene Clayton said, "Greg has the ability and potential to be one of the finest forwards to every play in the Dixie (Athletic Intercollegiate) Conference. He has a constructive offensive threat and can score at any range against any type of defense. His defense and speed are good but need improvement in both to attain the highest range of his ability. He is a potential starter and should carry a high scoring average for the season. He could be one of our greatest."

Banks Named To Lombardi Selection Com.

BALTIMORE, Md. — Earl Banks, head coach of Morgan State College, was named today to the Selection Committee of the second annual Vince Lombardi Award for college football's "Outstanding Lineman."

The 56-man Selection Committee is made up of leading college coaches and newspaper sportswriters from every region in the country. The player voted the most outstanding collegiate lineman will be honored at the second annual Vince Lombardi Award Dinner, January 14, 1971, in Houston, Texas.

Frank Leahy, Football Hall of Famer and Lombardi's line coach when he was one of Fordham's "Seven Blocks of Granite," will serve as Chairman of the committee.

The Vince Lombardi Award is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Houston with proceeds going to the American Cancer Society's research program.

Jim Stillwagon of Ohio State won the first Lombardi Award last year. Other finalists were Lary Di Nardo of Notre Dame, Chip Kell of Tennessee and Rock Perdoni of Georgia Tech.

Last year's Award Dinner was attended by more than 700 persons including Vice-President Spiro T. Agnew, who presented the award to Stillwagon; Mrs. Marie Lombardi, the coach's widow; Jerry Kramer, outstanding Green Bay lineman under Lombardi, and numerous other prominent sports and business leaders.

Designed by artist Mark Storm, the award is a 45-pound mounted block of granite symbolizing self-discipline, the trademark of the Lombardi style of football. Lombardi's first fame was as a member of the Fordham line that sportswriters dubbed the "Seven Blocks of Granite."

The award was conceived following Mr. Lombardi's death from cancer in September, 1970. Mrs. Marie Lombardi, the coach's widow, authorized the Rotary Club of Houston and the American Society to establish the award. The Lombardi Award is the only collegiate award authorized by the Lombardi family in honor of the famed coach.
